Schick Out, Eckert Continues His Fight; Compulsory Car Insurance Up to Senate

Assembly Vote 123-24 With Democrats' Help

Harriman and Republicans Reported Agreed Concerning Consumer Credit

Albany, March 15 (AP)—Supporters of the compulsory insurance bill passed by the Assembly looked uneasily today to the Senate. The bill may come a cropper there.

The measure won Assembly passage yesterday only because Democrats formed a solid bloc of support behind the GOP leadership. Twenty-four Republicans bolted party ranks to vote against it.

AFTER the 123-24 vote, the bill was shipped over to the Senate, where a similar measure went down to defeat by a narrow margin in 1953, after winning Assembly approval. The 1956 picture is just as uncertain.

In another development, Gov. Harriman and the legislature's Republican leaders announced today that they had reached agreement on three bills affecting consumer credit.

BI-PARTISAN measures were introduced by the Senate and Assembly Rules Committees to limit charges for installment sales and repossession of motor vehicles and to bring all sales financing agencies under state supervision.

Democrats backed the GOP's Compulsory Insurance Bill after Assembly Speaker Oswald D. Heck promised "favorable" consideration of amendments drawn up by Harriman's insurance superintendent, Leffert Holz.

Heck told the lawmaker who offered the amendments, Assemblyman Stanley Steingut, Brooklyn Democrat, to submit the amendments as new bills altering the main insurance measure. The speaker said he would request "favorable" action by the Rules Committee, which Heck heads.

Eugene F. Bannigan, Democratic minority leader, said he took Heck's statement as "assurance" that the amendments would pass.

THE AMENDMENTS would set up a five-million-dollar fund to be used for indemnifying persons injured or damaged by uninsured out-of-state vehicles, by hit-and-run or stolen-car drivers or by insured drivers whose insurance companies disclaimed liability.

The fund would be raised by assessing each motorist one dollar when he registered his car.

Harriman had said that, without such protection, compulsory insurance would not fill the bill. It was learned that Heck would push for passage of the amendments—next week.

THE BASIC compulsory insurance bill would require all the state's approximately 700,000 uninsured drivers to take out liability insurance or forfeit the

Feuerstein Eyes Help Two to See

Two blind persons will see as the result of the late Alwin Feuerstein's gift of his eyes to the "eye-bank" of the Sight Conservation Society of Northeast New York, it was announced today in a letter from Nicholas Michailoff, president of the society.

The letter from Mr. Michailoff was released for publication by Dr. Stephen McGrath, chairman of the sight conservation and blind committee of the Kingston Lions Club, with the permission of Mrs. Feuerstein.

IT IS ADDRESSED affectionately to Mr. Feuerstein, who served for 14 years as a first sergeant of his National Guard company and four years as master sergeant, as "Dear Sarge." The letter follows:

"Although we know that you are among the heavenly host, we address this letter to you, hoping that it will be to you the comfort you so rightly deserve for your thoughtful, generous and noble gift of your eyes. We want you to know that your corneas were transplanted within 24 hours after your life here ended to two blind persons who, when bandages are removed in about two week, will sing everlasting praise and thanks to you for their restored sight.

"UNTIL THERE shall be no more blind persons your name will adorn our list of those who, while living, thought of the less fortunate and did something wonderful for two of them. It is a list of which we are very proud.

"More than our prayers are asking God to honor you for your priceless gift."

Dr. McGrath said today that the "timing of this merciful event" coincides with the expression of the purpose of the sight conservation and blind committee booth of the Kingston Lions Club at the annual Kingston Area Exposition and Home Show which will, among other things, depict the sequence of events which occur from the time of death of an eye donor

Eden Supported

Confidence Vote Given On Cyprus

London, March 15 (AP)—A parliamentary vote of confidence gave weight today to Prime Minister Eden's determination to restore order in strife-torn Cyprus before making concessions to the islanders.

Eden won a 317-252 vote of support from the House of Commons last night after making plain his government intends to retain control over the Mediterranean island colony which is Britain's last bastion in the Middle East.

Eden declared Britain had faced a choice of exiling Archbishop Makarios, leader of the Cypriot movement for union with Greece, or abdicating British authority. He said loss of Cyprus would weaken western defenses from the Mediterranean to the Persian Gulf and would menace Britain's Middle East oil supply.

BRITISH troops on Cyprus put Eden's words to action. Soldiers and police sealed off with barbed wire a block of downtown Nicosia where terrorists killed a British police sergeant and wounded a Cypriot policeman yesterday.

The British served notice they would make a thorough search for a "secret hideout for arms and possible terrorists" in the region, where nine British servicemen have been killed by backers of the Union-with-Greece movement since last August.

At Lanarca, another Cypriot city, a 7-year-old Greek Cyproit boy who was stoning military vehicles with other children was shot and killed.

TERRORISTS gunmen wounded two policemen in Nicosia today. Two other policemen chased and captured a man on a bicycle who shot at them and missed.

Eden made no reference to American criticism of the Cyprus policy which caused a stir in the British press. But he made clear to both critics abroad and Laborite opposition at home he intends to stand by his policies.

He said the exiled archibshop not only refused to restrain the terrorists, but "by his silence he was taken to approve assassination and murder."

THE ARCHBISHOP, spiritual and political leader of 400,000 Greek-speaking Cypriots, was ousted from Cyprus with three aides last week. They arrived yesterday at their place of exile —the remote Seychelles Islands in the Indian ocean.

Labor critics, led by leftwinger Aneurin Bevan, argued in the Commons debate that Eden's government should have made new efforts to continue negotiations with Makarious.

EDEN REPLIED his government had done all it could to establish self-government on Cyprus, but that the archbishop continually made fresh demands. He added that he concluded "the archbishop would only in the end agree to terms which gave him virtual control of the island."

Eden's remarks were also obviously aimed at the United States, whose ambassador to Greece, Cavendish Cannon, infuriated the British by voicing the U. S. government's "sympathetic concern" to the Greek government and praising what he called "the dignity and statesmanship" of Greek authorities.

THIS BROUGHT a British protest to Washington. The State Department hurriedly announced the United States was taking neither side and offered to help find a "fair and just solution." President Eisenhower told

Democrats' Leader, Lions Oppose TB Hospital Closing

Two more communications were received today by The Freeman expressing opposition to the removal of the Ulster County Tuberculosis Hospital—one from Supervisor John J. Gaffney (D) of the town of Lloyd, minority leader of the Ulster County Board of Supervisors, and another from the Kingston Lions Club.

SUPERVISOR Gaffney took issue with a statement issued March 10 by Charles Relyea, chairman of the board of supervisors and Jesse McHugh, majority leader of the board concerning the proposed closing of the TB hospital.

The Lions Club communication called attention to the quality of treatment at the hospital, cost of operation and convenience of visitation of patients by relatives. Lions Club members also declared "it appears that occupancy of the hospital for 1955 exceeded 92 per cent.

THE TEXT of Supervisor Gaffney's letter follows:

"In your issue of March 10 there appeared a statement prepared by Mr. Charles Relyea, chairman of the Ulster County Board of Supervisors and Mr. Jesse McHugh, majority leader of that body, concerning the proposed closing of the Ulster County Tuberculosis Hospital. Throughout their statement they leave the impression that they are speaking for all of the members of the board of supervisors. This is certainly not the case, as the Democratic members of that body are unanimously opposed to any action at this time.

"THEIR STATEMENT gives us the impression that TB is practically eliminated in this area. This is far from the fact. Golden Hill has 54 beds and 46 or 48 of them presently occupied. Ulster county ranks in the first 10 counties in the state in the percentage of occurrence of TB. We have a sudden and rapid growth with new residents from all parts of the country, greatly increasing possible contacts.

"Their statement goes to great length enumerating the accomplishments and training of Dr. Hilleboe. Yet all he said was

Docker Now Denies Pay As Kick Back

New York, March 15 (AP)—A mission hearing yesterday recanted his earlier testimony that he kicked back on his wages to a hiring boss on the Yonkers, N. Y., sugar pier.

Despite warnings of a possible perjury indictment, Maximo Uribe, an unemployed dock worker, of 20 W. 70th, insisted that he never had paid any money for the right to work to Frank (Marchito) Acosta, hiring boss on the Yonkers pier. Acosta, 51, of 2136 Amsterdam Ave., faces possible revocation of his hiring agent license on charges that he exacted tributes from longshoremen working on the pier.

THE HEARING continues today.

Uribe said he was "drunk"

27 Million Proposed By House

Washington, March 15 (AP)—The House Appropriations Committee today recommended a new allotment of $27,800,000 to finance anti-polio programs administered by the states.

It also approved, subject to House action next week, 185 million dollars for veterans' readjustment benefits, 25 millions for payments to school districts where population has been boosted by federal activities, and $9,900,000 for construction of schools in such districts.

THESE WERE among the major recommendations in an omnibus $795,743,823 supplemental appropriation bill to finance miscellaneous activities during the current fiscal year ending June 30.

The total was $40,159,100 less than President Eisenhower had requested. The biggest cut was $15,351,500 lopped from the $129,041,500 requested for the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

The bill includes 26 million dollars for scientific work in connection with the international geophysical year. This program includes plans to send a man-made satellite around the world within the next two years.

THE $34,900,000 recommended for payments to the school districts was the entire amount requested. So were the $27,800,000 for grants to states to pay for polio vaccinations and the 185 millions for veterans' training benefits.

A large chunk, $266,771,471, of the bill's total was to meet federal pay raises voted last year by Congress but not financed in last year's appropriation bills.

Other allotments included 30 million dollars to pay operating subsidies to ship operators; 100 millions to reimbure state for the government's share of the cost of highway construction projects and 3 millions for forest highway work; 47 millions for grants to states for public assistance; $200,000 for expenes of

Tinnie Resignation Is Reported With Records

Attorney Quits Town Post, Remains In Supervisor War; Confer Till 1:45

John Schick today withdrew as attorney representing the town of Esopus but will continue to represent Arnold L. Ellsworth, who is contesting the supervisor's post, Supervisor Edward R. Eckert informed The Freeman at noon today.

Eckert said he had been informed by Schick this morning that he was turning over all town records to Deputy Town Clerk Jennie Schweigel, and that included in those records was the resignation of Mrs. Alice S. Tinne, town clerk.

EFFORTS to contact Schick today failed.

At the town clerk's office Mrs. Schweigel said Schick had turned over to the office folders containing "old records" and also a copy of the resolution adopted by the town board last night calling on Mrs. Tinnie to seek revocation of a letter to the State of New York National Bank which froze town funds.

ASKED if a resignation from Councilman Edward Cochrane had been received at the office, Mrs. Schweigel said she had not received such a paper although it "might be on Mr. Eckert's desk." She said she had not looked through the papers.

Deadlock Lasts Till Early Morning

With Councilman Samuel P. Tinnie absent due to illness, the town board of the town of Esopus met last evening in regular session and for hours remained deadlocked when two members, Councilman Edward Cochrane and Justice of the Peace Allan Dargie, refused to recognize Edward Eckert as supervisor.

HOWEVER at 1:45 a. m. today Eckert was granted temporary recognition by the four board members present long enough to adopt a resolution asking that Town Clerk Mrs. Alice S. Tinnie write a letter to the State of New York National Bank withdrawing her letter to the bank under which the town funds were frozen, and asking the bank to pay checks signed by Eckert.

This resolution was offered by Justice Francis E. Palen, Jr., and seconded by Councilman Cochrane. The resolution requested Mrs. Tinnie sign the letter as town clerk and that the letter be signed by all members of the town board.

ALTHOUGH Ellsworth was not at the meeting it was stated he would sign the letter provided he was also permitted to sign checks along with Eckert. Eckert refused to sign any checks which bear Ellsworth's signature.

A resolution was presented asking for the resignation of John S. Schick as counsel for the town but since the board stood a tie, two to two on the question, the resolution was tabled.

THROUGHOUT the evening the 200 citizens present at the meeting participated in the session, demanding resignations, asking why the board had originally called for the resignation of Supervisor Eckert and making numerous pertinent inquiries.

Eckert has announced that should the courts determine Arnold L. Ellsworth's appointment by the town board to the position of supervisor is legal, he will not contest that action or bring any further legal proceedings.

COUNSEL for the bank, Vincent G. Connelly, today told a Freeman reporter that he would advise the bank not to release funds under the resolution conditions. He said such authorization could not be recognized by the bank, pending determination in the controversy as to whether Eckert is supervisor or Arnold L. Ellsworth is legally in office.

Funds would be released by the bank, Connelly said, only if the bank is relieved from legal

Verdict Is $18,000 for Girl's Death

A verdict of $18,000 was returned Wednesday afternoon in Supreme Court in the action brought by Anna M. Wood of Ellenville against the Central School District No. 2, Ellenville, for the death of her daughter, Rosemary Wood. The girl, 14, was instantly killed on Aug. 7, 1954, when a flag pole struck her on the head. At the time the young girl was seated on a bench near the pool on the school grounds. N. LeVan Haver appeared for plaintiff and Andrew J. Cook, Jr., for defendant.

FOLLOWING the return of the unanimous verdict by the jury Cook moved for a postponement of motions before Supreme Court Justice Roscoe V. Elsworth until later today.

Taken up for trial Wednesday afternoon was an action for personal injuries brought by Donald Gardner against William H. Berry. The action arises out of a collision between a truck and car on the Bearsville flats on June 14, 1954. Goldberg and Kelter, with Abraham Streifer of counsel, appeared for plaintiff and Andrew J. Cook, Jr., of Cook and Cook for defendant.

Cold Halts Flood Threat, State Due for More Snow

Albany, N. Y., March 15 (AP)—Up to nine inches of snow plopped down on New York state yesterday and last night, but cold weather today diminished the immediate menace of new floods.

The Weather Bureau predicted more snow tomorrow after flurries today, and continued cold. Today's overnight low readings ranged from 10 above at Massena in northern New York to 24 in the New York city area.

The wet, soggy snow fell on most of the state. Highways were slippery this morning in all areas except the immediate vicinity of New York city, state police said.

The main flood threat yesterday was in the central part of the state, where Cayuga and Keuka lakes were above their normal level and where the swollen Seneca river threatened homes south of Baldwinsville. Some families were evacuated from their homes to the Baldwinsville town hall.

Keuka lake was reported two feet above normal. Some lake front cottages were flooded but most of them were unoccupied.

At nearby Penn Yan, Yates county officials issued an order which would put civil defense facilities into emergency service if this proved necessary. It was not thought that the city was in immediate danger, however.

In Geneva, to the north of Penn Yan, 8.9 inches of heavy wet snow fell. Plunging temperatures turned roads in the area icy early today.

Cayuga Lake was reported seven inches above flood stage.

Accumulation of new snow ranged up to seven inches at Al-Rome, bringing the total on the

Hoover Says Add 2,000 More Patronage Posts

Wahington, March 15 (AP)—Former President Hoover urged today the earmarking of 2,000 more top government policy jobs for political appointment, together with better "pay, security and prestige" for federal workers generally.

He declared that inadequate budget and bookkeeping practices have cost Congress its "control of the national purse" and are now costing the taxpayers four billion dollars a year of needless spending.

Civil service reforms are equally urgent to prevent "government talent from being constantly grabbed by business," Hoover said in a speech prepared for a conference called by the U. S. Chamber of Commerce to rally support for adoption of the year-old recommendations of his commission on federal reorganization.

Hoover said the 25 per cent turnover of government personnel— representing the loss and replacement of 500,000 workers annually—"would bankrupt any private enterprise twice a year."

"Promotion and pay fail to produce or hold top executive talent," he said, "and there are not enough policy-making positions today subject to party choice to carry out the mandates of the electorage."

He added: "Do not get scared

Wilson Hopeful Russia Will Talk Disarmament

Washington, March 15 (AP) — Secretary of Defense Wilson said today he holds a "reasonable hope" that Soviet Russia ultimately will negotiate with this country on disarmament.

Wilson told a Senate Foreign Relations subcommittee that there are "some realists" in the Kremlin who know, as the United States knows, that there can be no winner in an atomic or hydrogen war.

And he said he is sure there must be "some men of good will in Russia just like there are in this country."

But Wilson made it clear the United States does not propose to disarm until there is agreement on a plan for safe control. He said the aerial inspection and exchange of military blueprints proposed by President Eisenhower would be a "good start" and added that "any system would have to include ground inspection."

Wilson testified before a subcommittee headed by Sen. Humphrey (D-Minn.) which is hunting for means to promote disarmament. He was accompanied by Adm. Arthur Radford, chairman of the joint chiefs of staff.

Humphrey wanted to know "how you can have an effective inspection system if you cannot be sure as to what (nuclear stockpiles) is hidden away?"

Previous testimony has brought out that hidden stockpiles cannot be detected 100 yards away.

Wilson said he appreciates the difficulties but he does not consider the ultimate development of detection devices impossible.

In his prepared testimony Wilson said no safe atomic disarmament control plan is "in immediate prospect" and added:

"Until science involves a satisfactory method for the detection of hidden stockpiles, no disarmament program undertaken in the interim can provide a control system for nuclear weapons which would preclude risks to security interests of the United States."

Humphrey asked how any agreement for aerial inspection and exchange of military blueprints could be effective unless it applied also to Red China. He said the Red Chinese are "well stockpiled by Russia.

"It will have to be a late step, Wilson replied.

He agreed the matter presents a "problem," but said that if an inspection system applied only to Russia at first that would be better than no progress.

Auto Dealers Will Hold Show At State Armory April 25-28

The Kingston Automobile Dealers Association will hold an automobile show at the State Armory on Manor avenue, April 25 through 28, the association announced today.

The show will be open to the public afternoons and evenings during the four days.

Monroe Southard of Kingston who successfully managed auto shows here in past years, has been engaged as show manager and will have charge of all arrangements for the dealers' group.

B. C. Anderson is chairman of the show committee. Serving with him are Robert W. Denton, C. J. Gross, John Hayes, Jr., and Frank L. Moran. Mr. Hayes is president of the Association.

In addition to the dealers' displays, it is planned to have booths available for business related to the automobile industry, including gasoline and oil, parts, insurance and financial.

'Happy to Have Him' Says President at News Conference

EisenhowerStatementForeshadows Nixon Nomination, Senators Think

Washington, March 15 (AP)—President Eisenhower's statement that "I would be happy to be on any ticket" with Vice President Nixon was interpreted by senators of both parties today as foreshadowing Nixon's renomination.

"That ought to end any rumors the President might have another running mate," Sen. Mundt (R-S.D.) told an interviewer. He said the Republicans are now in a position to push ahead with their campaign "while the Democrats don't even know who their head man will be."

Eisenhower made the statement, and accompanied it with fresh praise for Nixon, in commenting at his news conference yesterday on the New Hampshire primary in which more than 22,000 Republican voters wrote in Nixon's name for GOP vice presidential candidate.

Eisenhower said the vote indicated "lots of people" in New Hampshire "agree with what I have told you about Dick Nixon."

Nixon didn't commit himself on running again, although friends said there is no doubt of his availability. He issued a statement saying:

"There could be no greater reward for a man in public life than to have the President speak so generously as he has of my work on several occasions during the past three years. All I can say is that I shall try to continue day by day to do the best job I can in behalf of the Eisenhower administration."

In another statement, Nixon said "No one could have been more surprised than I was" at the size of the write-in vote for him in New Hampshire. He expressed thanks to all who had written in his name.

Sen. Schoeppel of Kansas, new chairman of the Senate Republican campaign committee, said "I am glad to see the President make that statement because many of us on Capitol Hill feel the same way about it," adding: "The New Hampshire write-in demonstrates Nixon's popularity with the people."

Sen. Saltonstall (R.-Mass.) said: "What the President said, in my opinion, goes as far as he can go at this time, since he would not say he wanted Mr. Nixon as his running mate before getting the presidential nomination himself."

Senate GOP Leader Knowland of California and Sen. Bricker (R-Ohio) said Eisenhower's statement appeared to be an endorsement of Nixon for renomination.

Sen. Sparkman (D-Ala.), 1952 Democratic vice presidential candidate, said in a separate interview:

"I have felt all along Nixon would be on the ticket. They have to keep him or admit his selection four years ago was a mistake in the first place. If they dropped him, it would be an admission that because of the President's health they are looking for a second president."

Sparkman said he does not discount Nixon's ruggedness and effectiveness as a campaigner.

"It is going to take a lot of work to defeat this ticket," Sparkman said, adding he thinks the Democrats can win with a strong campaign.

Phone Co. Opposes Bill That Would Change Rate-Fixing

Albany, N. Y., March 15 (AP)—The Public Service Commission and the New York Telephone Co. are rolling out the heavy artillery in a battle over a bill which would bring about a major change in the PSC's rate-fixing law.

Atty. Gen. Jacob K. Javits is on the firing line, too. Javits is behind the bill, sponsored by Sen. Wheeler Milmoe, Canastota Republican.

At stake is the telephone company's bid for a $68,850,000-a-year rate boost. The PSC turned down the request in 1953. Last month the Court of Appeals upset the ruling.

The court's decision opened the way for the telephone company to renew its bid for the increase.

Keith S. McHugh, president of the New York Telephone Co. and Spencer B. Eddy, representing the PSC argued over Milmoe's bill yesterday in a hearing conducted by the Senate Finance Committee.

Milmoe's bill would provide that a utility's rate of return be considered in relation to the company's actual investment. As worded now, the law sets the rate in relation to "the value of the property actually used in the public service." This applies however, only to railroads and telephone companies. All other utilities are governed by statutes basing rates of return on actual investment.

McHugh said that phone service would suffer "inculculable damage" if the Legislature made

Categories for Assistance Explained by Welfare Head

Hundreds of men, women and children receive direct aid from the Ulster County Welfare Department in 10 different categories, Commissioner Edward E. Murray said today.

The separate categories are necessary because the department deals with a variety of complicated human situations requiring special services to meet their difficulties.

"Every day people find themselves in such difficulties they cannot carry on without public aid," the commissioner told The Freeman. "They then go to the welfare department—the last hope."

FOR EACH TYPE of assistance caseworkers investigate for initial eligibility and the determination of continued eligibility, all of which is documented as a case history under the individual applicant's name.

"An eligible needy person, as written in the Social Welfare Law, is a person unable to support himself, either in whole or in part, is not receiving and is unable to secure needed support from legally responsible relatives able to provide support and is without other means or source of income," Commissioner Murray said. "These requirements cover all assistance cases."

He said it was "necessary to verify eligibility and make every effort to obtain positive proof that each applicant is in actual need before a grant is issued. A check of banks, insurance companies, employers, if any, real and personal property and relatives is made, using every channel of information for a complete check.

"THE ONLY exception to such an investigation would be an emergency grant, usually in home relief cases where pre-investigation assistance may be given, but its continuance must be based on the result of a complete investigation.

"In many instances investigation has uncovered assets from which full or partial recoveries have been made, or the result is the closing of the case, perhaps the denial of the application.

Commissioner Murray said that the volume of detail, state department regulations and the law, all subject to constant changes, presented an operation difficult to understand by lay people.

"FROM THE ORIGIN of a case with the caseworker, through the maze of directives to the final state department report by our accountants the work of specialists versed in our procedure are required, specialists who by training and experience have that understanding and knowledge."

The success of the welfare program will be as good, as adequate and as effective as is our ability to recruit qualified staff, Mr. Murray said. "Our problem is to provide adequate staff training and prevent staff turnover due to small salaries and big case loads. It seems there is a need to develop anad promote sound social work personnel.

"Teamwork and cooperation are necessary between the department, the public, a wide variety of groups, organizations and agencies in the community, together with the support of local government in order to enrich the total program for those in need."

AMERICAN LEGION

In conjunction with the membership drive launched this week by Kingston Post 150, American Legion, Post Commander Daniel Bittner listed a number of reasons for joining the Legion:

Badge of Distinction—Veterans wear the Badge of Distinction for serving the nation, state and community.

Honorable Service—The button of the American Legion testifies to your honorable service during World War 1, World War 2 or the Korean conflict.

Rehabilitation—Every member helps toward providing adequate care and protection for the disabled of World Wars 1 and 2 and the Korean conflict and their dependents.

Child Welfare—Every member helps to carry out the child welfare program through which the organization stands in place of the father to thousands of needy orphans.

Americanism—By being a member, the veteran gives full support to the principles of Americanism through which un-American influences are counteracted. He supports patriotic education and helps make all communities better places in which to live.

Junior Education—Through membership the veteran supports the teaching of sportsmanship and high ideals to the youth through activities such as junior baseball, Boys' State and Boys' Nation, Oratorical Contests, Boy Scouts and the School Medal Award.

National Security—Every member will help the organization in attaining its goal for an adequate national defense to insure the nation against attack.

Legislation — While practically every piece of legislation beneficial to veterans of World Wars 1 and 2 and the Korean conflict has had the full support of the American Legion, a greater membership will insure the success of future legislative programs.

Non-partisanship—By joining veterans become members of the most democratic organization in the world. There is no rank in the Legion, no race, no creed.

Comradeship—Veterans enrolling in the Legion join a real outfit of he-men who serve together in time of war. Friendships made in war service endure. Friendships made in the American Legion likewise endure.

Voice Heard—The voice of the single veteran is not heard, but the voice of millions of veterans in the American Legion are heard and heeded.

He who laughs last actually wanted to first, but the other fellow thought of the same story sooner.

IN TIME OF TROUBLE

When trouble, whether through grief or loss, comes to an individual or a family, the strong hand of a good friend is a very present help: It aids, sustains and gives courage. When disaster strikes a whole city, it turns to its great friend, the Red Cross, for aid, for upholding, for encouragement. Nor is it ever disappointed. Ask anyone in the states which suffered from wind, fire or flood in the last year and tales of appreciation will pour forth.

"We never could have managed without the Red Cross!" the sufferers say.

Now is the time to show that appreciation in good form. The Red Cross needs more help than ever this year, because it gave more help than ever last year. People in states which did not suffer should be happy to give more than usual to help because people in the devastated districts are still busy rebuilding and recovering from last year's blows, and this year, perhaps, can give less than usual.

"It takes one hand to wash the other," says an old proverb. So hold out the hand to the Red Cross with silver, or green stuff or a check or a pledge. Thus you, too, in your human way, become "a very present help in time of trouble."

A surgeon we know has extremely skilled hands, yet he will confess, under pressure, that he must have his wife tie his bow ties.

Always pause a moment before complaining about another's faults. First, count to ten—ten of your own shortcomings.

HONESTY IN POLITICS

One of the most hopeful signs that our Republic is surviving as such is that the public is still suspicious that its officials may succumb to corruption. However, just to pick on gas-corrupted Senators is short-selling the problem, which is so complex that nobody can quite know by what investigative process any Committee can discover the under-the-table contributions that are or have been made to politicians by businessmen, labor leaders, special committees or even Communists.

It is now well known that when the American Labor Party was organized in New York State, it not only functioned as a Communist ally of the Democratic Party but that a small and effective cell was established in the Republican Party. That cell has now proliferated and is very powerful in New York State and it is well-heeled, as the expression goes. Senator McClellan might look into that situation, now having the excuse that he is trying to discover under-the-table contributions to Senators or prospective Senators.

One hears stories. Naturally there are no means, without the power of subpoena and a force of detectives, to know whether the stories are wholly true. For instance, I do not believe that Senator Francis Case's story is exactly as he tells it because it does not ring true, but I have no proof one way or the other. It will undoubtedly come out sooner or later that just as there is a natural gas lobby, so there is an anti-natural gas lobby and if one gang is spending money, the other gang is spending money and an investigation should bring that out, too. Then maybe those Senators who have a reputation of being paragons of virtue will turn out to have campaign funds too, to which their friends and even strangers contribute, under-the-table as well as otherwise.

Candidates can, of course, say that they do not know who contributes to their campaign funds, that they do not scrutinize the lists, that they do not check each name and certainly that they never heard of under-the-table contributions. So, how is this or any Committee going to discover the under-the-table contributions? Senator McClellan might investigate an almost perfect example of that sort of thing, involving the defeat of Senator Burton K. Wheeler, a leading Democrat and a great liberal in his day. He was defeated by money sent into Montana from New York and subsequently a similar attempt was made to defeat the late Sen. Pat McCarran by the same corruption.

It would be of value to get at a pattern because this seems clear that if politicians take under-the-table money, it is not to indulge themselves in licentious living but to have the wherewithal to remain in office, which every year becomes increasingly expensive. The problem then is to get at election costs which are all out of line in relationship to the salaries paid and the amount of time an elected official has to give to the job and to being re-elected. To a degree, the process of being re-elected is continuous for some public officials who come from highly competitive and unstable areas where they have to show themselves constantly, sit on daises at public dinners, attend wakes and bar mitzvas, buy tickets for innumerable charities, including many fake but popular affairs, and just keep their names alive by making the silliest statements, such as even a television gag-writer would be ashamed to acknowledge.

All this costs money and unless one comes into politics with inherited money or after he has managed to accumulate large sums honestly or anywise, it is a very tough racket and particularly hard on the womenfolk.

One of the most lucrative ways of getting on is to make a freak of oneself on the Senate floor and then go lecturing at $1,500 a lecture. This involves no work, except travel. It is possible to become popular with some particular group and then their societies all over the country arrange such lectures. It is an indirect subsidy and cannot be called a campaign fund and breaks no law.

So, exactly what is going to be investigated and what will it prove? Mostly that if a guy goes into public life without much money, he has to get some. The best way is to marry a rich wife.

That Body of Yours

By JAMES W. BARTON, M.D.

MORE ABOUT SEX HORMONES

We had not quite finished yesterday discussing estrogen, the female sex hormone. Estrogen may be used in young girls whose bodies remain child-like and who do not show normal sexual development at the proper age. Their organs may be sluggish but are essentially normal. The most common use of estrogens is for easing the disturbances of woman's change of life.

The menopause (cessation of menstrual periods) may appear quite early in the lives of some women but usually it occurs after the age of forty. It is usually later in women who begin to menstruate at an early age than in those who begin later. We all know that many well-adjusted women go through the menopause with very little stress or strain but others have symptoms that may be very mild or extremely severe; hot flashes, dizziness, palpitation, tingling, sleeplessness, irritability, nervousness, easy fatigability. Careful doses of estrogens can replace hormones that the ovaries are ceasing to produce and help to escort the patient over this difficult period.

To look at another use of the sex hormones let us consider cancer of the prostate gland, an exclusively male disease afflicting about one man in twenty past the age of fifty. The prostate is an accessory sex gland, encircling the urinary canal in the bladder outlet. Its growth and development is strongly influenced by the male hormone, testosterone.

Cancer of the breast is the most common type of malignant tumor in women although it can occur in men as well. Development and function of the female breast is largely controlled by the female hormones.

Since prostate and breast growth are stimulated by male and female hormones, respectively, suppression of the hormones might cause cancer cells of those organs to recede. This could easily be accomplished, in theory, by giving female hormone to balance or neutralize male hormone, or vice versa. In practice, such treatment has been strikingly successful.

Female hormone given to a man with prostatic cancer causes the cancer to decrease. Even where cancer cells have spread to a man's chest, female hormone has caused such growth to shrivel up and disappear.

Male hormone given to women with breast cancer has caused the tumors to decrease, has lessened pain and given many patients a feeling of vigorous well-being.

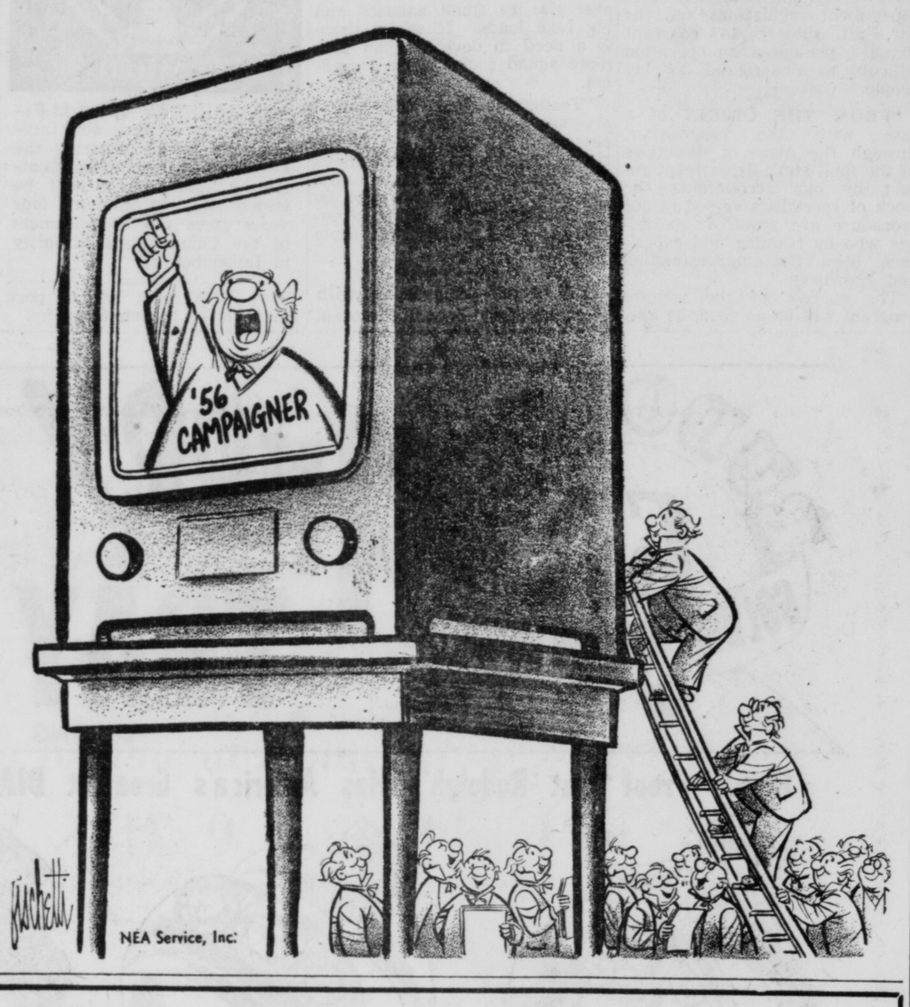

These are wonderful qualities of the sex glands but we must never forget that the sex hormones can be two-edged weapons. It already is known that they can be chemical stimulators of cancers that already exist in the reproductive organs. For example, large, self-taken doses of male hormone upsets the balance of the body and may be disastrous if unsuspected cancer cells are already present in the prostate gland.

Edson's Washington News Notebook

BY PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

Washington —(NEA)— Widespread criticism of U. S. foreign policy naturally raises the question of what changes to make.

Asked about a reappraisal at his last press conference, President Eisenhower replied that he wanted more flexibility in foreign aid.

Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, in his statements to Congress just before taking off on his world tour, tried to give the impression things were dandy as is.

He said Russian policy of the past was a failure. The Communists were said to be "revamping their policy from A to Z" and "playing our game now. And I am sure we can beat them."

Reality paints a less rosy picture. And it is notable that Dulles did not talk in this same vein when he appeared before the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization's meeting in Karachi, Pakistan.

Return of Dulles from his talks with India's Prime Minister Nehru and other Asian leaders may therefore provide the opportunity for general foreign policy reappraisal.

U. S. FOREIGN POLICY is constantly being reviewed by State Department experts, but it is seldom revised.

Among the questions now being considered for ways to meet the Soviet's new challenge of economic penetration are these:

Should there be a new Marshall Plan for underdeveloped countries—particularly in Asia?

Should the North Atlantic and Southeast Asia pacts be converted into economic cooperation agreements, with less emphasis on the purely military aspects?

Should more reliance be placed on neutral nations to combat international communism?

Is there more hope for liberating the satellite countries through neutral nations than through military pacts?

IT CAN BE STATED authoritatively that there is no intention to scrap the NATO and SEATO pacts now. President Eisenhower says no American wants to see this country or its allies become militarily weaker.

But there is a growing belief that it may not be best to have all countries outside the Iron Curtain join various military defense pacts to thwart Communist aggression.

Switzerland and Sweden, it is pointed out, are strong bulwarks against communism, though they are neutral. By the same token it is recognized that a neutral India might be a stronger ally.

One of the weaknesses of the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization is that its members are so scattered geographically. There is no one country strong enough to serve as a base for the military alliance.

COUPLED WITH THESE considerations is a belief that Soviet Russia does not want war. Russia needs the certainty that the western powers could be completely knocked out.

As long as an atomic stalemate, or a guided missile stalemate exists, the danger of war is considered less.

If Soviet Russia should get a medium range, 1500-mile guided missile into production before the west, the value of all NATO bases in Western Europe would be destroyed. A recasting of American policy would then be an absolute must.

A decline in U. S. influence throughout the world is seen as the danger. It would result from a do-nothing-more-policy followed from now on in the serene belief that the cold war has been won and everything is OK.

The President's plan for sharing the atom for peaceful purposes is regarded as good, but not a complete answer. There is a gap which has not yet been bridged by current policy planning.

Today in National Affairs

President Removes All Doubts About Nixon's Renomination

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington, March 15—Renomination of Vice President Nixon as the running mate of President Eisenhower now is assured.

Whatever doubts may have been placed in the mind of the President by critics of the vice president now have been removed by the forthright statement in his favor issued by Mr. Eisenhower himself and by the spontaneous demonstration of confidence which the voters in the New Hampshire primary gave Mr. Nixon.

THE FACT that more than 22,000 persons took the trouble to write in the name of Vice President Nixon in the Republican primaries in New Hampshire—which equaled approximately the total vote cast on the same day for Senator Kefauver for President in the Democratic primaries after he had conducted a personal campaign in that state—is a sign that the Republican voters feel deeply and emotionally about keeping the ticket as it was in 1952. The vote for Mr. Nixon was a reflection of the deep-seated anti-radical trend in America.

Mr. Eisenhower has sensed this trend. The President is a fair-minded man. He listens to criticism and weighs both sides carefully. Sometimes he purposely argues the case from the standpoint of an opponent or critic and then reaches his conclusion.

Mr. Eisenhower has always liked the vice president. He regards him as an able servant of the public interest. He feels that no vice president in history has been as thoroughly familiarized with the policies of the chief executive concurrently in office or as well trained to take over the duties of the presidential office if an emergency occurred.

But Mr. Eisenhower has been puzzled by the opposition to Mr. Nixon which he has heard or head about. Not being a political expert himself, the President has been anxious to find out what the opposition to Mr. Nixon amounted to. He now has found out that it comes mostly from Democratic partisans.

FOR THE LAST seven days the mail at the White House has indicated to the President that an overwhelming number of Republicans and independents felt that Mr. Nixon would again make a good candidate for vice president.

When Mr. Eisenhower sat down on Tuesday of this week to talk things over with Mr. Nixon, neither one knew what the New Hampshire primary would show Wednesday morning. But the President told the vice president that, at the Wednesday press conference, he would clear away any doubt about what he meant last week concerning his suggestion that Mr. Nixon "chart his own course."

Mr. Nixon told the President that he would be glad to let him do the charting and that he would abide by his wishes. Mr. Eisenhower decided then and there that, while he shouldn't dictate to the Republican National Convention the nominees for President and vice president, he was quite willing to let it be known publicly now that he would be glad to have Mr. Nixon as his running mate.

IN POLITICS this is an unqualified endorsement. It is the nod to the politicians that the vice presidency is to go to Mr. Nixon unless some unforseen accident of fate changes the picture between now and next August, when the National Convention is assembled. It means too, that if anything did happen to Mr. Eisenhower, the presidential nomination would go to Mr. Nixon, especially since he would under such circumstances be serving as President.

It's an unwritten rule that the man in the White House may, if he so desires, greatly influence the selections by the nominating convention of his own party.

There has been much talk about the vice presidency in the abstract sense. It has been argued on the radio and in many articles in the press that the two major parties should each name a first-rate vice president—as if that wouldn't happen in both cases this time. But actually the Republicans will have a first-rate vice presidential nominee in Mr. Nixon, and the real problem will be how to find a first-rate presidential nominee as well as vice presidential nominee for the Democrats. Personalities are important but issues are far more powerful. None of the Democratic spokesmen has crystallized the issues of an effective opposition.

President Eisenhower's personal popularity is a Republican asset but it didn't elect him in 1952. What elected him then was the nation's disapproval of the Truman policies. As for 1956 it will not be the President's or the Vice President's popularity, respectively, which will bring victory, but the approval by the country of the administration's policies and a desire to see them continued.

The Republicans will have to fight hard to win. There are many obstacles to overcome. Mr. Eisenhower this week has overcome one of the biggest—party dissension. By his unequivocal endorsement of Mr. Nixon, he has done more to restore party harmony than anything a practical politician could have achieved.

What Mr. Eisenhower needs most of all now is to have his public policies expounded effectively. Even the Republicans who will vote for him do not necessarily endorse all his acts. There is no such thing as a 100 per cent record for any president. Differences will always develop on highly controversial issues. But the voter this time will have to decide whether, all things considered, the "dynamic conservatism" which has produced economic prosperity and the common-sense leadership in international affairs which has maintained peace are to be upset now for an era of experimentalism and fundamental change in public policy.

No Drinking Bout

El Paso, Tex. (AP) — The El Paso Herald-Post carried the headline "Cowboy Downs Bourbon in Rodeo Riding Contest." The cowboy was Ike Tomason of Billings, Mont. The mount he drew for the ride was named Bourbon.

Real Test of Consumer Spending Still to Come

New York, March 15 (AP)—Retailers hope the Federal Reserve Board is right in its finding that Americans plan to go on living it up this year.

Retail sales, taken as a whole, have been running behind the fast pace set in the closing months of last year. Retail inventories, taken as a whole, have been rising.

IF THE EASTER trade doesn't come up to expectations and if the public doesn't loosen its purse strings generously, price cutting could become a significant part of the merchandising scene later on. The food chains have shown the way with some tempting bargains in recent weeks—and the public has responded appreciatively.

The real test of consumer spending is yet to come. Right now the emphasis is largely on spring apparel. Women are expected to dash into the stores between snow flurries and buy new spring outfits for themselves and their children and—if there's any money left over—maybe a new tie or hat for their husbands to sport in the Easter parade on April Fool's Day.

THE OFFICIAL arrival of spring next week—and its real arrival somewhat later — is counted upon to increase the yen for a new car, a house in the suburbs, and all manner of furnishings, durable or soft, for present homes.

The federal reserve's survey of the public's spending mood, conducted annually for it by the survey rsearch center of the University of Michigan, indicates that about as many persons this year as last plan to indulge themselves in car, house and appliance purchases.

For the retailer, particular for those who sell their goods on time, the cheerful part of the survey is that the majority of consumers "are optimistic about their own income prospects and are very optimistic about prospects for general business conditions."

IT IS OUT of this optimism that retail sales, particularly installment plan sales, are born.

While some forms of retail sales were sliding a little this year, the public was busy paying up old debts and increasing its savings totals. January-February sales of U. S. Savings bonds were rising to an 11-year record high, the U. S. treasury reports.

The post-Christmas lull in sales have been mostly seasonal for many forms of retailing, however, and there's a good chance of a spring revival. Compared to a year ago, when the boom was just starting, department stores are recording as high or a little higher total volume. The chain and mail order houses have shown a 9 per cent sales increase in the first two months of this year, compared with last.

BIG DRAG on the total of retail sales, in comparison with the 1955 spending boom, has been in the auto field. But the auto men explain that last year the public didn't follow its usual buying pattern and sent auto sales soaring in the winter months. This year they're back to normal. And the auto dealers hope that once the Ides of March is out of the way—and the income tax deadline next month safely if painfully past—sales will pick up just like another spring.

One sales spur the merchants had been hoping for—a cut in excise taxes—appears to be dimming fast. The high tax on such things as autos, gasoline, cigarettes and liquor which were imposed as a Korean war emergency were due to die at the end of this month.

Congress is in a mood to continue them for another year. The tax collector will be offering no sales incentives.

To Maintain the Stock

Marinette, Wis. (AP)—The will of Earl Schnabel, filed for probate in county court, ordered possession of his homestead to revert in five-year periods to each of five sons with this proviso:

To maintain possession the the homestead must contain "at all times 12 milk cows, eight head of young cattle and three horses."

After the fifth son has had possession, the homestead will go to the oldest grandson "and so on down through the ages."

The estate is valued at not more than $3,000 in personal property and about $3,500 in realty.

Questions -- Answers

Q—To whom is the phrase "Once a Marine, always a Marine" credited?

A—M/Sgt .Paul Woyshner. He coined the phrase during a tap-room argument with a discharged Marine. It later became the corps' official slogan.

Q—Is the English language well adapted for singing?

A—No. It is hard for the voice to form English words and musical tones at the same time.

Q—Does the earth's gravity affect sports?

A—Yes. For example, a javelin thrower competing in southern latitudes would beat his northern record by a foot or more.

Q—When the first offspring of a hereditary ruler are twins, who becomes heir to the throne?

A—The firstborn generally.

Q—How many men have been nominated three times for the presidency by the Democratic party?

A—Three — William Jennings Bryan, Grover Cleveland and Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Surplus Auctions More Profitable Senators Declare

Washington, March 15 (AP)—A Senate subcommittee said today the military is realizing about 7 per cent of the original cost of the billions of dollars worth of surplus goods it is selling.

Urging greater emphasis on sale by auction, the armed services subcommittee on preparedness headed by Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson (D.-Tex.) said in a report that only a minor part of the surplus sales now are conducted that way.

YET CASE studies conducted by subcommittee investigators showed that in some instances the return when the auction system was used was almost double that from the sealed bid method, the report said.

The subcommittee also commented that "a large percentage of property being sold as surplus was unused and in good condition," adding that:

"It is quite likely that the need for the property may have disappeared. However, the sale of unused equipment always creates doubts and uncertainty as to the wisdom of purchasing the material in the first instance.

"These doubts are difficult to resolve and to overcome."

SOME OF THE predominantly unused items in a recent navy sale, the report said, included photographic equipment, pumps, lighting fixtures, paper, fans, cooking items and fiberglass.

The senators said that in 1954 the Defense Department sold for $84,305,071 property originally brought for $1,184,319,708, or a return of 7.1 per cent.

In fiscal 1955, which ended last June 20, the department was said to have sold for $103,047,320, exclusive of scrap proceeds, property bought for $1,406,907,540 or a return of 7.3 per cent.

"It is estimated that surplus property sales will continue at the same, or even a larger, volume in the next two years," the report said.

Air Force Names Victims of Crash

St. John's, Nfld., March 15 (AP)—The names of the five crew members and a Spanish passenger killed Monday when an Albatross aircraft crashed into the sea shortly after taking off from Argentia were released yesterday by the U. S. Air Force.

The dead:

1st Lt. Donald O. Nelson, aircraft commander, and 2nd Lieut. S. C. Campbell, copilot, both of the 1737th Ferry Squadron based at Amarillo Air Force Base, Texas.

1st Lt. Richard W. Johnson, navigator, and A. 1. C. Roger W. Walter, radio operator, both of the 1737th Ferry Squadron, Dover Air Force Base, Del.

S. Sgt. F. A. Brown, engineer, 1739th Ferry Squadron, Amarillo Air Force Base.

And a passenger, Capt. Alberto D. Grigea of Madrid. Details concerning Capt. Grigea were not known.

Home towns of the crew members were not know here.

The U. S. Navy is continuing search and dragging operations in the crash area. One unidentified body and a tail section of the aircraft have been found.

Drink for Firemen

St. Louis (AP)—Volunteer members of the surburban Robertson fire department are nearly always close at hand when the alarm sounds. The firemen operate a soft drink tavern in the fire station. The tavern profits, which go to the fire department, were just one of the advantages mentioned by Marshall Ladner, the fire district treasurer. "Having this tavern in the engine house keeps some of our firemen always close by," Ladner said.

Expensive Drugs

Ann Arbor, Mich.—It's enough to make you reach for an aspirin. Dean Tom D. Rowe of the University of Michigan's College of Pharmacy, says close to half a billion dollars of the nation's annual hospital bill goes into drugs.

Junior operator license revoked, Henry Maben Jr., 18, of Shandaken for driving without insurance.

Massena Man Dies In Upstate Collision

Binghamton, N. Y., March 15 (AP) — A Massena man was injured fatally north of here yesterday when his car was in a collision with a small truck.

James Mulholland, 45, died last night in Binghamton City Hospital. His wife, Elsa, also 45, was in serious condition.

The Broome county sheriff's office said the couple was returning from a Florida vacation.

Lawrence Camilli, 27, of Reading, Pa., the truck driver, was in fair condition.

Mrs. Mulholland suffered numerous cuts and a leg injury. Her husband received possible fractures of the left knee, left arm and spine.

Rhee Lays Blame On U. S. for Red Invasion in '50

Seoul, March 15 (AP) — President Syngman Rhee complained today that the United States failed to provide South Korea with arms and ammunition adequate to prevent the Communist invasion from North Korea in June 1950.

Rhee made the complaint in a speech at ceremonies celebrating the second anniversary of the Republic of Korea's 1st Army. The ceremonies were held at Wonju, 60 miles southeast of Seoul.

RHEE SAID he had asked Brig. Gen. William L. Roberts, then chief of the U. S. Military Advisory Group to Korea (KMAG), to equip ROK troops with more arms and ammunition "so we could meet any Communist invasion from the north.

"But he (Roberts) did not listen to me," the President said.

Roberts served as the head of KMAG from July 1, 1949, and June 15, 1950. The North Koreans invaded South Korea June 25, 1950.

The 80-yetr-old Korean president at the same time expressed gratitude to the United States for military aid "through which the ROK army has become the biggest non-Communist army in Asia."

Cigarette Economics

Mackinaw City, Mich. (AP) — Leonard (Hoot) McGraw, 44, who doesn't smoke, says he can tell the economic condition of the country by the length of cigarette butts littered on the ground. "Look," he says, "now they're long — things are good. During the depression and rationing people burned their hands of them."

Roundup of Albany Bills

Albany, N. Y., March 14 (AP)— A plan for simplifying the checking of Permanent Personal Registration lists in smaller communities is up for final vote in the Senate.

Assembly Republicans rammed the bill through yesterday over Democratic protests on an 89-58 party vote and sent it to the other House.

THE OPTIONAL PPR law provides that localities adopting the system must make annual house-to-house canvasses to keep voter lists up to date. The bill would eliminate this provision for cities except those over 100,000 population—New York, Buffalo, Albany, Utica, Syracuse, Rochester and Yonkers.

The Assembly minority leader, Eugene F. Brannigan, said the bill tagged New York Democrats as "political thieves." Mayor Robert F. Wagner had asked that the requirement be lifted to cut expense.

The sponsor of the measure, Assemblyman Genesta M. Strong of Nassau county, said the canvass system was needed in New York city because of its population density.

THE ASSEMBLY also passed and sent to the Senate measures to relax restrictions on the licensing of milk dealers.

The agricultural commissioner now may refuse to grant a license if he finds that it would create "destructive competition" in the milk market. This evidence could be that one or more dealers already are licensed in the market or that licensed dealers are not using all of their plant capacities.

The measures are sponsored by the joint legislative committee on imitation milk products and problems.

One bill would define "destructive competition" as "such competition as will tend to prevent existing licensees in a market from earning a fair return on a prudent investment." The current standard would be held insufficient evidence.

THE OTHER BILL would compel the commissioner to issue a license in a market served by only one dealer unless "destructive competition" were proved by the commissioner.

A bill to ban legal advertising in shopping guides won final passage in the Assembly and was sent to Gov. Harriman, who vetoed a similar measure last year.

The bill defines newspapers in which legal ads may be placed. These would include weeklies, semi-weeklies and dailies and commercial, financial, religious and legal journals.

Religious papers were excluded in last year's bill, and Harriman's veto message said some reputable religious organs would suffer.

Sponsors of the measure are Sen. Henry Neddo of Whitehall and Assemblyman Lawrence M. Rulison of Syracuse, Republicans.

The Senate gave final passage to a bill that would abolish the 19-member state fire advisory board and re-establish it as a 15-member body.

Three-year terms were specified for the members, who now serve at the pleasure of the governor. An aide to safety director Michael H. Prendergast said the measure was designed to rotate membership of the board.

The Senate Rules Committee introduced a bill to boost the annual salaries of members of the state Standard and Appeals Board from $13,800 to $15,000. The chairman's salary would be raised from $15,900 to $17,000.

A 16-BILL PACKAGE was submitted through Senate rules to clamp stricter controls on private investigators and detectives.

They provide for licensing of private watchmen, guards and patrol agencies with the secretary of state after fingerprinting and investigation as to criminal records.

And they impose new regulations on the use of signs, shields badges and advertising. The bills would appropriate $7,500 to the state department and $80,000 to the state police to finance licensing and investigation of private investigators.

A PROBE INTO the activities of private investigators—most of them in New York city—was conducted by the state department in January. It was launched after the department said 1,300 complaints had disclosed "shocking abuses."

A plan through which the city of Saratoga would lease part of its Congress Park for a proposed three-million-dollar 300-room hotel cleared its last legislative hurdle yesterday.

Legislation authorizing the city to make the move, subject to approval of the voters of the community, was passed by the Assembly and sent to Gov. Harriman.

The measure was approved by the Senate Monday night.

Mental Hospital Hit Hard by Blaze Loss in Millions

Fulton, Mo., March 15 (AP)— A spectacular fire destroyed most of the 105-year-old administrative building at the State Mental Hospital here early today, doing millions of dollars worth of damage.

Seven hundred and twenty patients were evacuated from patient wings, parts of which also went up in flames.

Miss Ronda Farris, a staff member who lived in the administration building, suffered a cut or burn on one foot, but there were no reports of other injuries.

AT THE HEIGHT of the blaze it could be seen for 10 miles and the glow was visible in Jefferson City, state capital 25 miles to the south.

Firemen from Jefferson City, Columbia and Mexico, Mo., helped battle the blaze. Some 100 students from Westminster College in Fulton helped evacuate patients and rescue hospital records.

Clarence Burton, engineer and fire chief at the hospital, said he did not know how the blaze started. He added, however, that the electrical wiring in the building was in "bad shape."

Although the number of U.S. heart disease deaths per 100,000 people declined from 1931 to 1935, the number of deaths from other causes decreased more rapidly so that the proportion of heart disease deaths to total deaths was increased.

Study of Oceans Important, Say Scientists of U. S.

Washington, March 15 (AP)—U. S. scientists want to take a deep look into the ocean to see what man is doing to the air.

Some of them think the slight warming up of the earth's climate in recent years will continue as the burning of more coal and oil puts more and more carbon dioxide gas into the atmosphere.

A House appropriations subcommittee was invited to think about some of the possibilities if this is true: For example, that the Arctic ocean, freed of much of its ice, may become navigable, giving the Soviet Union a newly useful 2,000-mile coastline and perhaps making it a great maritime nation.

THE SUBCOMMITTEE made public last night testimony of Dr. Roger R. Revelle, a specialist in oceanography for the U. S. National Committee for the International Geophysical Year.

Revelle said he thinks there is enough to be learned from the sea to justify a $1,864,000 appropriation for oceanographic work.

Ocean deeps, he said, might be 'an ideal place for disposing of nuclear waste." That dangerous trash, he said, will be accumulating at an ever increasing rate as nuclear power is used more and more.

But before using the depths as a trash bin, he said, scientists would have to know "how rapidly this deep water comes up to the surface where the fish live" —otherwise commercial fisheries might be wiped out.

WHAT DOES the sea have to tell science about carbon dioxide in the air? Revelle explained it this way:

"The "fossil fuels"—coal, oil and natural gas—which nature accumulated over millions of years, are being burned up very quickly. Simply by cooking his meals, heating his houses and powering his machines with them man is "making perhaps the greatest geophysical experiment in history." It is one that can't be repeated, because the fuels will be used up in perhaps 100 years.

THIS CONCENTRATED burning is liberating more carbon dioxide than the world have ever seen in a comparable time: "I would estimate that by the year 2010, we will have added something like 70 per cent of the present atmospheric carbon dioxide to the atmosphere...it is like 1,700 billion tons ...it may, in fact, cause a remarkable change in climate."

The climate change is expected by some because carbon dioxide has a "greenhouse" effect. It lets in heat from the sun, but retards radiation of heat away from the earth.

The big question is, how much carbon dioxide is absorbed by the ocean, how much remains in the air?

Report on Milk

Albany, N. Y., March 15 (AP)—Spanish-speaking households in New York city lead Negro and white groups as milk-drinkers, Gov. Harriman's consumer counsel reported today. Mrs. Persia Campbell said a survey of 2,198 households last year showed the per capita consumption of Spanish families as 2.8 glasses per day, against 2.1 for white households and 1.6 for Negro families. The larger number of children in the Spanish-speaking households and the continued use of milk in adult life accounted in part for the greater consumption, Mrs. Campbell said.

Mixed Oil, Water

Corbin, Ky. (AP)—Drillers were searching for water on John Crawford's farm when they hit oil at a depth of about 170 feet. At 200 feet, they struck gas and, like the oil, it was not enough to be valuable. Finally, at 264 feet, the drillers struck plenty of water.

Boost in School Aid Pleases Many

Albany, March 15—Everybody appears to be happy with the new bipartisan plan to boost state aid to education.

Democratic and Republican chiefs were taking bows last night and throwing barbs at each other. Educational leaders offered congratulations to both groups.

The new program would boost state aid to education by $91,200,000 which is $32,100,000 more than was needed to meet recommendations of the Heald commission on educational financing. The GOP had recommended boosting the Heald figures by 28 million. The Democratic plan would have upped that figure by adding four million.

Michael H. Prendergast, the Democratic state chairman, said Gov. Harriman had secured the agreement, "fulfilling one of his principal campaign pledges to the people of New York state."

L. Judson Morhouse, GOP state chairman, said "We welcome Gov. Harriman's endorsement of the Republican plan and are amused by Democratic attempts to steal credit for the entire action simply by adding four million dollars to the Republican increase."

The New York State Educational Conference Board said it congratulated both "the governor and the Republican leaders on having reached agreement to substantially increase state aid to schools over the amount recommended my the Heald commission."

Howard Goold and Everett Dyer, representing the board, said "The adjustments agreed upon will . . . bring substantial improvements to our schools."

The birth rate in Italy dropped from 30.8 per 1,000 people in 1922 to 23.5 in 1940 in spite of baby bonuses offered by the Mussolini regime.

The floor committee will consist of Karl Cook, chairman; Mr. McCormick, Mr. Granwehr and Mr. Flanagan.

Dartball League Race Tightens in Stretch

Saugerties, March 14—The first five teams in the Saugerties Dartball League standings closed ranks considerably following Monday night's games. Ruby lost ground to second place West Camp on their 2 to 1 split with Centerville Fire Company while the West Campers were taking three from Trinity. Ruby now leads by two full games.

The Glasco AC shutout at the hands of the Service Center B. and Glasco A. split with Quarryville has created a three-way tie for third place with both Glasco teams and the Service Center at 43 wins and 32 losses.

In the first game of the West Camp-Trinity tilt the Sinnot boys of the West Campers starred with home runs which gave them a 13 to 6 win over Trinity.

West Camp scored first in the third inning when with the bases loaded they scored on successive singles. Joe Sinnott added one more with his solo homer in the fifth. In the sixth, West Camp added eight more runs on a grand slammer by Len Sinnott and four runs on successive singles.

Trinity failed to score until the sixth when Fred Brown brought in the first run with a single. Jack Stalters followed with a two run home run giving Trinity a total of four runs.

Frank Sinnot hit a solo homer for West Camp in the seventh and Fred Brown hit another, this one a solo, in the eight for Trinity. Trinity scored one in the bottom of the ninth but could not better the final score for 13 to 6 in favor of West Camp.

Trinity opened the second game with a run on successive singles and West Camp retaliated in the third on Rodney Lasher's two base hit which scored one and two additional runs scored on successive singles.

Trinity had a six run inning on successive singles and a sacrifice and later West Camp scored three on successive singles and a stolen base.

Len Sinnott scored in the eighth for West Camp with a three run home run, his second for the evening. Jack Stalters of Trinity came back with his second for the evening, a grand slammer putting Trinity in the lead 11 to 9.

In the West Camp ninth Frank Sinnott his his second homer with one on to tie the score. Trinity failed to score in the bottom of the ninth and the game went into extra innings.

West Camp opened the top of the tenth with a two bagger by Herb Pysher and Bob Lewis, captain of the team, put a three run home run in the record books making the score 14 to 11 in favor of West Camp.

In Trinity's half of the tenth they put runners on first and third but failed to score. The final remained 14 to 11 in West Camp's favor.

West Camp opened the final game of the evening with a run on successive singles. Trinity tied the score in their half with Edward Green's homer. West Camp again loaded the bases in the fourth and scored on two successive singles. Trinity picked up a run on a sacrifice in their half of the inning.

West Camp scored in the sixth and the eighth on two home runs by Red Drescher, each with a runner aboard. Harry See homered for Trinity with one on making the score 7 to 4 in favor of West Camp. In the ninth Trinity added two with Richard Kimble's two run homer but fell short of a tie. West Camp won 7 to 6.

Harry See of Trinity was high man with 9 for 13 and West Camp's captain, Bob Lewis was high on that team with 13 for 17.

Next Monday West Camp plays Service Center B at Service Center.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY PARTY—Saugerties Lions Club held its annual St. Patrick's Day observance Monday evening at the Flamingo Restaurant, Route 9W, Saugerties. Building Own Desserts Is Teen-Age Pleasure

SMOOTH MAPLE FLAVOR gives this delightful concoction of ice cream and waffles a regal character. Youngsters prepare it on spot.

BY GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor

Girl Scouts and Campfire Girls and their male counterparts say they enjoy building their own desserts.

As an example, Jimmy (14) and Johnny (6) Weaver of Hilliards, Ohio, accept responsibility in preparing "refreshments" for their many friends when they drop in after school or over the weekend. These sons of Mrs. James Weaver share the honors when it comes to making a favorite dessert treat, assembled and prepared along "build your own" lines.

For this specialty, frozen waffles and ice cream (any flavor) are important ingredients.

To top off this special dessert, they simply pass a bottle of maple-blended syrup to pour on in copious quantities. Sounds like an idea to introduce to every teen-ager in every family.

The directions are simple. After the first demonstration by the Weaver boys, the guests "build their own." First thing to do is to toast the waffles, following the directions on the package. If the crowd is large, this sometimes keeps two toasters busy.

While still hot, the waffles are placed on serving plates, and ice cream is spooned over it. Then, quickly, a rich river of maple-blended syrup is poured over the top—and some lucky boy is busy eating.

The Weaver boys' "basic three"—ice cream, maple-blended syrup and frozen waffles—is just for the sake of fun and variety, sometimes supplemented with several bowls of extra toppings. These are always things that go well with the "basic three"—coarsely chopped nuts, sugar-coated cereals, snowy flaked coconut.

Mexican Delight
(Makes 4 servings)

One package vanilla or butterscotch pudding and pie-filling mix, 2 cups milk, ¼ cup finely chopped peanuts.

Combine pudding mix and milk in saucepan. Cook and stir over medium heat until mixture comes to a full boil. Add 2 tablespoons of the nuts. Pour hot pudding at once into custard cups which have been dipped in cold water. Chill. Unmold and sprinkle with remaining nuts. Serve with syrup.

TOMORROW'S DINNER: Tomato juice, sauteed frozen fillets, tartare sauce, potato balls, green peas with white onions, crusty rolls or bread, grapefruit section and lettuce salad, waffles with ice cream and maple syrup, coffee, tea, milk.

World's largest non-citrus fruit market area is located around Benton Harbor, Mich.

Transplanted School

Vallejo, Calif. (AP) — Vallejo is building a new modern school by the transplant method. The operation calls for hauling 12 outmoded buildings of the wartime Carquinez School a mile across town on flatbed trucks to a new site. There they will be reassembled and modernized into a single integrated unit.

By the start of the fall term, the dilapidated buildings will have been converted into a streamlined stucco structure — the John Davidson Eelementary School—with 12 classrooms capable of handling 420 students.

"It's a reconstruction project designed to salvage a shell of a building and modernize it," said Everett Rolff, business manager of the Vallejo Unified School District, in describing the $240,521 operation.

Herter Not Candidate

Grand Rapids, Mich., March 15 (AP) — Gov. Christian A. Herter of Massachusetts, heading for a Chicago appearance today, says he will not seek the Republican nomination for vice president. Herter last night addressed about 450 persons at a belated Lincoln Day dinner sponsored by the Kent County Republican Committee. At a news conference he said it was unlikely the Republican party would nominate him as a candidate for vice president and added: "I do not intend to seek the nomination." Herter, 61 in two weeks, said he decided "months ago" against seeking a third term as Massashusetts governor.

Says Stalin Did Good, Harm for Communism

Rome, March 15 (AP)—Italian Communist Party Chief Palmiro Togliatti, just back from Moscow, says Joseph Stalin did a lot of good for communism—but a lot of harm, too.

Togliatti outlined the new stand on the late Soviet dictator in a report to the Italian Communist Party central committee on the Soviet Party Congress last month in Moscow.

"Stalin was and remains a great figure in all our movement for what he has given to the creation of the Bolshevik Party . . . Stalin was a great Marxist thinker," Togliatti said.

"But this is not to say that everything Stalin has done or said must be heard always as something true and definite, as something right in all its aspects."

Laxatives Are Fatal

Pottstown, Pa., March 15 (AP)—A 4-year-old girl died last night of poisoning said by authorities at Pottstown Hospital to have resulted from swallowing half the contents of a bottle of laxative pills. The girl, Patricia Dudley, was given the pills a week before by an aunt, Rose Mars, 8, while the two children were playing at the Mars' home. Authorities said the girls thought the bottle contained candy pills. The dead girl had been treated at the hospital and discharged Tuesday. Yesterday she had a convulsion and was readmitted. Dr. Stanley Nowicki, who treated her yesterday, said an autopsy had been ordered by the coroner's office.

More Tax Relief Is Urged to Help Small Businesses

Washington, March 15 (AP)—Sen. Fulbright (D.-Ark.) urged Congress today to vote additional tax relief to small businesses.

Fulbright offered as an amendment a House-approved bill to extend present corporation and excise tax rates a proposal which he said would be of great benefit to corporations with annual earnings of $225,000 and under.

At present, Fulbright said in remarks prepared for the Senate, corporations are subject to an income tax of 30 per cent on their net earnings plus a 22 per cent surtax on earnings above $25,000. His amendment would reverse the percentages—that is, tax corporations 22 per cent of their net income plus a surtax of 30 per cent on earnings over $25,000.

He said if Congress feels the treasury could not stand the revenue loss of around 300 million dollars which would result, he would propose that the 30 per cent surtax be hiked to 31 per cent.

Under the latter proposal, he said, all firms earning less than $225,000 would receive a tax reduction, those earnings more than that would get an increase.

"Obviously this redistribution of the impact of corporate taxes would benefit the low income corporations," Fulbright said. "While the tax relief afforded would be modest, I believe it would have a significant beneficial effect on the smaller businesses of the nation."

Easter Seal Saturday Night Tea Supper

If you belong to a crowd that likes to get together on Saturday night, why not have everybody in for a Saturday night Tea Supper—this one for charity's sake.

Inform "the gang" that each person will be expected to pay for his supper—so that little crippled children may benefit, and that the money that you realize over the cost of the food, will be given to the Easter Seal Society which is holding its annual campaign this spring.

Hundreds of such teas and tea suppers will be held all over the country during the campaign to raise money for the hundreds of thousands of crippled children and adults who will receive care, training and guidance for a more productive life.

Last year, the Easter Seal Society sent 7,500 crippled children to camps for fresh air, sunshine, exercise and training. It helped, in all, more than 122,000 crippled adults. And there are so many more to be helped if it can get the funds.

Plan a substantial and economical menu to serve 20 people. Boston baked beans with frankfurters and brown bread, tossed green salad, gingerbread and piping hot tea, make an ideal meal.

You'll want lots of well brewed stimulating tea for the crowd—at least 40 to 45 cups and the easiest way to serve perfect tea to such a group is to make up a tea concentrate. Just before your guests arrive, bring 1½ quarts of freshly drawn cold water to a rolling boil, remove from heat and immediately add ¾ pound loose tea. Cover and brew 4 minutes. Strain into a heated pot and keep warm.

To serve, pour about one ounce of the tea concentrate into a cup and fill with piping hot water. With the concentrate it's very easy to regulate the strength of the tea in accordance with the preferences of your guests.

Vly-Atwood Vols Vote to Oppose Hospital Closing

Vly-Atwood Fire Company of Stone Ridge passed a resolution opposing the removal of patients and closing of Ulster County Tuberculosis Hospital in Kingston.

The action was taken at the regular meting of the firemen held Monday. A letter informing the Board of Supervisors of the action has been forwarded according to John Wurster, secretary of the fire company.

Man Burned to Death

New York, March 15 (AP)—An elderly man was burned to death and a woman suffered smoke poisoning and shock this morning when fire swept a 2½-room apartment at 164 E. 33rd street. The dead man, who occupied the apartment where the fire started, was tentatively identified as Cesar A. Salmon, 65. Mary Lee, 65, who occupies an apartment directly above Salmon's suffered smoke poisoning and shock. She was taken to Bellevue Hospital.

Tinnie . . .

responsibility and this could be done if both Eckert and Ellsworth sign checks pending determination as to who is legally supervisor of the town.

THE TOWN of Esopus supervisor controversy takes on added responsibility today when $5,000 water bond payments come due. With funds frozen the credit of the town now enters the picture if the bond payment is not met.

A suggestion made yesterday by Town Attorney John S. Schick that under Section 42 of the Town Law a deputy supervisor acceptable to both sides be appointed, has met with a refusal on the part of Eckert.

AT A MEETING last evening Eckert said on advice of counsel he could not consent to that remedy. Today N. LeVan Haver told a Freeman reporter that he had advised Eckert against such consent. "It is unnecessary action and would create additional expense on the town," Haver said. He pointed out that it would mean the expense of an additional bond for the new office and he said the town was now paying for two bonded officials.

During the evening there were numerous demands from citizens that they be informed as to the status of the resignation of Mrs. Alice S. Tinnie as town clerk. It was stated that her resignation had been presented and given to Samuel P. Tinnie, councilman. The whereabouts of the resignation now was in dispute and after it had been stated the resignation had been picked up by someone, it developed that Town Attorney John Schick had the resignation.

DURING the evening after the two members of the board, Dargie and Cochrane, declined to recognize Eckert as presiding officer, the session took on the complexion of a public taxpayers meeting. There were demands that both Dargie and Cochrane resign and that Attorney Schick be relieved as town attorney. The resolution by Eckert, seconded by Palen, made later however was tabled when the two to two tie vote resulted.

At one stage in the evening Councilman Cochrane said he would sign the letter authorized by the resolution which seeks to free the town funds and that he would then resign from office. A move was also made to have Justice Dargie resign but it is reported he stated he desired a few days to consider that matter.

PUBLIC participation and opinions by citizens present were expressed freely and at times bitter remarks were passed.

When it was stated Ellsworth was willing to sign the letter along with the town board members, provided he could be cosigner with Eckert on all town checks, there was loud opposition by the public and demands that Ellsworth be denied that request. Eckert declined to accept the proposal that both he and Ellsworth sign checks.

It was 2:20 a. m. today when the meeting finally ended.

80 Inmates Stricken

Tampa, Fla., March 15 (AP)—Between 75 and 80 inmates of the Hillsborough county jail were stricken with food poisoning last night and 20 of them were sent to the hospital. "It appears to be all over now," said Jailer Clint Burgess. He added that "some of the prisoners were pretty sick." The jail held 213 prisoners at the time of the food poisoning attack.

GOP DA Resigns

Huntington, N. Y., March 15 (AP)—Dist. Atty. Harry C. Brenner of Suffolk county, a Republican, has resigned in the midst of a widening investigation of the GOP-controlled Long Island county by Democratic state officials. The resignation clears the war for Gov. Averell Harriman to name a new prosecutor. The Democratic governor's office disclosed at Albany late yesterday that Brenner had resigned. Hours later, Brenner sent his resignation announcement to the Associated Press in New York city.

Confidence . . .

his news conference the United States would do anything reasonable and practical to help reach a solution.

The U. S. attempts to calm the British brought further growls from two Conservative London papers.

"If Americans really want to help," the Daily Mail commented "we suggest that the best thing for them is to steer clear of Cyprus and keep their mouths shut. The British are quite capable of handling this affair themselves.

"No one yet knows whether the American intervention was another clangor by Mr. Dulles, a deliberate policy by the State Department or blazing indiscretion by the U. S. ambassador to Greece.

"Whatever it was, the only beneficiaries are our common enemies the Russian Communists, and we beg our American friends to remember that."

The Daily Telegraph said it was "almost inconceivable" Cannon should have made his statement "entirely on his own responsibility."

"However this may be," the Telegraph went on, "the State Department and the secretary of state, who is unfortunately still absent on one of his numerous journeys, should be under no illusions about the effects on British public opinion."

Support Is Pledged

Washington, March 15 (AP)—The State Department declared today its "utmost support" for the present United Nations armistice chief in Palestine and denied that any plan to curtail his authority is being considered. Press Officer Lincoln White said he can find no one in the State Department "who has ever heard of" a reported plan for creation of a new U. N. commission to operate in Israel and the Arab states. The armistice chief is Canadian Gen. E. L. M. Burns.

Patrolman Gets Term

Pensacola, Fla., March 15 (AP)—A dismissed police patrolman was sentenced today to two years in state prison for aggravated assault on a Negro woman. Judge Ernest E. Mason of the Court of Records imposed sentence on George McLarty, 25, then commented: "It will be interesting to see what the northern press has to say about Florida justice." He did not elaborate.

Plane Is Overdue

Clovis, N. M., March 15 (AP)—The air force today reported a light plane carrying five persons more than 24 hours overdue on a flight from Ft. Sill, Okla., to Clovis Air Force Base. The Public Information Office said the plane was a silver single engine L20 with the number 16510. It left Ft. Sill at 9:18 a. m. (MST) yesterday and was due in Clovis at 11:38 a. m.

ALLEY-OOP—Mike, a frisky chimpanzee who escaped from its owner, leaps from a New York building top to a fire escape on the lower East Side March 14. The chimp belongs to Frank Quinn, a night club entertainer, who has been training the animal for an act. Police and ASPCA agents were in a tizzy for a few hours trying to corral the simian. It was finally trapped on a rooftop. (AP Wirephoto)

Financial and Commercial

New York, March 15 (AP)—The stock market forged ahead in record high territory today with metal, chemical and oil issues standout performers in the early afternoon.

There also was a definite show of strength in motors, aircrafts and rails. Key stocks scored gain of 1 to 3 points. There were scattered losses of fractions.

Hoover Would

that we are proposing a spoils system. We wish merely to change less than one-tenth of one per cent of the total number."

The President, Hoover said, should have perhaps 2,000 additional jobs subject to his appointment, and nonpolitical career workers "should not be required to make policy or to defend administration policy."

Uuring adoption of the commission's pay and promotion reforms; Hoover said:

"If our top military officers had been chosen on the civil service basis of promotion, the deadwood at the top would have lost us two world wars.

"The present salaries and fringe benefits in our top civil service are below those in top military service. And worse still, they are far below those in private enterprise."

The 81-year-old ex-president said he had canvassed private firms on the number of workers paid $15,000 a year or more. This is the top civil service bracket. If government devoted the same proportion of its payroll cost to such salaries, he said, there would be 14,000 federal workers in the $15,000-and-up bracket, instead of the present 1,364.

Administration Farm Bill Lost By 45-44 Vote

Washington, March 15 (AP)—The administration lost a major farm bill battle by one vote today when the Senate approved, 45-44, use of a dual parity system in computing crop price supports.

The vote kept in the omnibus soil bank farm bill a provision allowing use of either an old or new parity formula, whichever is higher, in calculating the level of price supports.

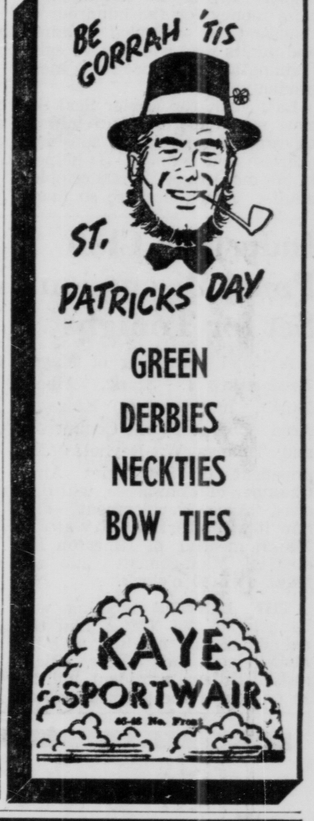

Sen. Aiken (R.-Vt.), who led an unsuccessful effort to strike out the section, said its retention would "be a fatal blow to our hope for a good farm bill this year."

Sen. Anderson (D.-N.M.), former secretary of agriculture who also opposed the dual parity, said "lets make this bill realistic so you don't ask the man down in the White House to veto it."

But Democrats and Republicans from western wheat states combined to engineer the administration setback.

The one-vote margin of victory was aided by Sen. Laird (D-W. Va.) who was sworn in only about an hour before the roll call. He was appointed to succeed the late Sen. Kilgore (D-W. Va.).

Parity is a theoretical price at which a farm product has a fair purchasing power in terms of costs of things farmers must buy.

Assistant Director Of Science Division

New York, March 15—International Business Machines Corporation Wednesday announced the appointment of Daniel R. Mason as assistant to the director of the Applied Science division, with headquarters here. He was formerly manager of the company's New York data processing center.

Mr. Mason became associated with IBM in 1950 as an Applied Science representative in Boston. In 1952 he was appointed manager of the mathematical planning group at Poughkeepsie, N. Y. He was made manager of the scientific computing service the following year, and became manager of the New York data processing center in 1955. Mr. Mason holds degrees from Kenyon College and the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Mr. Mason, who is a native of Findlay, Ohio, has supervised many important technical projects for IBM. While in charge of the IBM 701, he played a key role in helping to apply the big computer to such problems as translation of Russian into English, and weather forecasting.

Rennies Have Escape in Skid

Arthur Lee Rennie, 42, his wife, Helen, 27, and two small children, of RD 3, Box 343, Saugerties, had a narrow escape early last night when their automobile skidded on Route 32 about two miles north of Kingston, smashing through a guard rail fence and coming to rest in some brush and small trees at the edge of a 10-foot drop, it was reported by Kingston state police.

Trooper Raymond Kowalsky said the 1952 sedan, operated by Mr. Rennie, was proceeding south up a slight grade when it skidded on snow, crossed to the east side of the highway, smashed through the guard rails into underbrush which kept it from going over a steep embankment.

No injuries were reported. Time of the mishap was listed as 8:30 a. m.

Rojek to Retire

North Tonawanda, N. Y., March 15 (AP)—Stan Rojek, former major league shortstop with the Brooklyn Dodgers, Pittsburgh Pirates and St. Louis Cardinals, said today he had asked for and received his release from the Dodger organization, and was quitting baseball. Stan, now 36, operates a dairy with his brothers. For the past two baseball seasons he has been with St. Paul in the American Association. "The Dodgers seemed to think I could play a couple of more years in the higher minors," Rojek said, "but it really wouldn't be worth it. Thank goodness I've got the dairy here with my brothers."

Bird Song

Gordsboro, N. C. (AP)—Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Lewis, Jr., here sometimes think they are hearing things. The sweet song of a mocking bird floats about the living room as if the bird were in the room. Favorite song perch of a mocking bird is the chimney on the Lewis' home. As he sings the music is piped down the chimney and into the living room.

Carload Loss

Hopkinsville, Ky. (AP) — Mr. and Mrs. Christy Terzrieff reported that trying to pack their car for a trip was like filling a bathtub with the drain open. Each of them took a big load to the car. When they made a second trip with still more stuff, there was still plenty of room. A thief had made off with the first two loads.

CITY OF KINGSTON, N. Y., THURSDAY EVENING, MARCH 15, 1956.

Three-Local Men Interested In Mineral Exploration Co.

A mineral exploration company known as Aero-Terra with three Kingstonians among its directors has opened offices in this city.

It is reported that the local office, 137 O'Neil street, is headquarters for the new corporation. Other offices are located in Dover, Del., and San Antonio, Tex.

Richard B. Skala of Kingston is president of the organization, Seymour Merrin of New York city, vice president, Stanley Szymanski of Kingston, treasurer, and William A. Kaercher of Kingston, secretary.

CORPORATE CHARTER of the organization, now in the exploratory stage, was issued Nov. 28, 1955, Mr. Skala said.

He explained that Aero-Terra has engaged in wide exploration in the southwestern part of the country and the Republic of Panama and has acquired exploratory rights to approximately 90,000 acres in Texas south of San Antonio. The corporation is now engaged in obtaining thousands of square miles of mineral concessions from the government of Panama, he said.

HE POINTED out that although "our initial interest, at present, is in the radioactive mineral field we still intend, wherever possible, to locate and develop any other mineral deposits."

Mr. Skala said he believes New York state also has mineral potential and that the organization hopes in the future to engage in intensive surveys in this area. Some surveys in Ulster county and adjacent sections have already been conducted but in general, the bodies of ore have been small and of low grade—"not worth spending a lot of money until a mill is available in this area." He explained that shipping costs would be prohibitive

EXPLORATION for radioactive minerals will be done from an airplane, using a "scintillator," described by Mr. Skala as "100 times more sensitive than the most expensive Geiger counter." An airplane equipped with a scintillator can cover approximately 475,000,000 square feet per day over flat, hilly and mountainous terrain, or fly into canyons and arroyos, he said. The plane flies over the ground at about 50 to 100 feet. The best equipment can't detect ore more than five feet below the surface at present but a new type of equipment recently invented by Armon Mabry, a prominent geophysicist of Houston, Tex., who recently accepted a directorship in Aero-Terra, may reach "far below that level," Mr. Skala told The Freeman.

Gold, platinum, manganese, pitchblende and other minerals, in addition to radioactive materials, will be explored by the organization, Mr. Skala reported.

Traffic Fatalities 2,226 During '55

Albany, N. Y., March 15 (AP)—Traffic accidents claimed 2,226 lives in New York state during 1955, a six per cent increase over the 1954 death toll of 2,096.

The motor vehicle bureau said the death rate also rose slightly. It was 5.4 per 100 million traffic miles, compared with 5.3 during 1954, the all-time low year.

The record year for total fatalities was in 1931, when 3,101 persons were killed.

The number or registered motor vehicles in the state soared to a record of 4,807,747 last year, up 5.7 per cent over the previous record year of 1954. The number of licensed drivers also climbed to a new high—6,200,179, compared with 6,157,319 the previous year.

There are about 950 grizzly bears in the United States.

CAMPING OUT—IN A WINDOW—These models in Cincinnati, Ohio, are camping out in an automobile dealer's display window. They're the final realistic touch to a display supposed to show how easy and how much fun it is to go anywhere in a station wagon. They may not have proved their point, but they sure attracted attention. Each evening at 7:30 they took their posts in the window, remaining until 7 the next morning. Spotlights kept them in full view, even while they were sleeping. "Sometimes drivers go by and then jam on the brakes. It's real funny to see them put the car in reverse to come back and see us," said Mary Hauck, left, and Betty Miller. The girls reported meeting "an awful lot of nice people" who constantly knocked on the window. Some even brought them free breakfast.

Bishop Reelected To Post, Goldman Is Firm Salesman

MYRON GOLDMAN

Two announcements were received today concerning the Bert Bishop Co., local home improvement firm.

One from Nersica, Inc., New York city, said Mr. Bishop, president of the company, had been re-elected a director of the trade association which represents the home improvement contractors of the United States.

The other announcement from the Bishop company itself was that Myron Goldman, Lucas avenue extension, has joined the firm as a sales representative.

Nersica association cooperates closely with governmental agencies as well as better business bureaus and law enforcement authorities in promoting sound trade practices for the protection of the public.

National Home Improvement Month in progress during March is one of Nersica's major educational activities to induce families to preserve and protect their share of the nation's $220 billion investment in its 50 million homes.

Mr. Bishop's reelection as a director reflects the keen interest he has shown in preserving and protecting home properties.

THE RUMINATOR

By HUMPHREY B. NEILL

A Column of Contrary Opinion

It is unwise to assume, early in an election year, that everything will be "smooth sailing" and that no rocks or reefs will impede or wreck the campaign cruise.

At the moment, it looks a little as if the Republicans believe they are on a pleasure cruise; whereas it might be prudent if they got over their complacency quickly and figured on some rough seas ahead.

It is always interesting—to the Ruminator anyway—to conjure up possible contrary twists for you readers to mull over. You need not agree with such contrary thoughts, but at least you get some mental exercise in ruminating over the pros and cons.

LET US TAKE what is commonly accepted as being a successful election-year proposition; namely, that for the party in power to stay in and get reelected, it is essential to have "good times." A slump, with heavy unemployment, is almost sure to defeat the "ins."

At the moment, a severe slump of that character is not anticipated by either politicians or economists.

Likewise at the moment, one is justified in wondering if by failing to curb the boom sufficiently (last year) there is a possibility of a renewed inflation near at hand.

For months the Ruminator has discussed the monetary restraints which our money managers have imposed on the economy—but always with the question in the background, are the curbs and restraints stiff enough?

THE EISENHOWER decision to accept renomination has fired enthusiasms and emotions, as was to be expected.

However, if public sentiment boils over the delicate balance in the economy is such that a new inflationary spiral could wind up dangerously. By dangerously, I mean it could present critical financial problems that might not easily be dealt with.

At the risk of boring you with financial discussions, let us go back a little bit and see what the developments have been.

Because of the "gentle and moderate" restraints imposed by the Federal Reserve Board last year (by raising the rediscount rate on repeated occasions and by withdrawing funds from the banking streams), the momentum of the boom slowed down. From mid-1955 onwards the boom moderated considerably, in several directions.

However, there was little slackening in public spending or in borrowing. In some sectors, where demands had been pretty well supplied (autos and other consumers' goods in the appliance field), there was a decrease. Also in demands for private homes.

But in over-all spending, people have not pulled back. (Indeed, recent figures reflect increased spending).

THIS WAS the situation when the Eisenhower decision was awaited. During the interval, however, wage demands were increasing and the minimum wage increase went into effect. Prices of manufactured goods continued to edge up.

There was what might be termed "an uneasy balance" when Ike decided to stand for reelection.

This brings us to the present and to the unexpected developments that may lie ahead.

While the Administration would not wish to be confronted with a recession during the months prior to the election, neither would an inflationary burst be likely to help the Republican cause.

IF PRICES start to climb and if the stock market starts up again in a fast rise, the Ruminator thinks you will find that such an inflationary "binge" will prove to be troublesome to the Administration.

There has been so much propaganda on the dangers of inflation, which inevitably leads to a bust, that much can be made of this danger by politicans campaigning against the present Administration

There is a touchy point here which just might become political dynamite (although perhaps improbable). The Democrats always deride the Republicans for being 'the party of big business." Inasmuch as big business is playing the boom for all its worth, and is showing no restraint, in inflationary "flight" might be blamed on the Republicans with telling effect. All this is merely contrary "supposing" as we look ahead.

NEW HURLEY

New Hurley, March 14—The March meeting of the Ladies Aid Society was held at the home of Mrs. James Macklin last Wednesday afternoon. The president, Mrs. Gerow Wilkin, presided over the business meeting. The society has recently purchased a new American flag for the church. At the close of the meeting a social time was enjoyed and refreshments were served by the hostess Mrs. Mackin. The April meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Myra Dolan.

The Missionary Society met at the home of Mrs. Francis Garrison Thursday afternoon. The business meeting wa in charge of the president, Mrs. Wilbur J. Van Wyck. Committees were appointed for the spring conference of the Classis of Orange which will be held in the New Hurley Church on May 15.

The program for the afternoon was in charge of Mrs. Burton Ward who had arranged an interesting program with several of the ladies taking part. A social time was enjoyed and refreshments were served by the hostess.

The Ladies' Aid Society is sponsoring a church family supper at the New Hurley Church hall for the benefit of the church Tuesday March 20 at 7 o'clock. Each family is requested to bring a covered dish. Dessert and coffee will be furnished by the committee. A free offering will be taken.

Because of the large increase in the number of people that are turning out for roller skating at the church hall, the schedule effective March 19 is being changed as follows: Mondays from 6:30 until 8 p. m. will be for youngsters up to and including 12 years of age. From 8 until 10 will be for 13 years and over. Saturday from 2 until 4 will remain the same.

In observance of Girl Scout Week a number of Girl Scouts and Brownie Scouts with their leaders and troop committee attended the services in the New Hurley Reformed Church on Sunday morning.

Sharen Schloten, a student at the New Brunswick Seminary, preached in the New Hurley Church on March 4. He was a dinner guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gerold DeWitt.

The services Sunday were conducted by Roy Wagener, a student at the New Brunswick Seminary.

Cuyler T. E. Thayer, a student at the New Brunswick Seminary, will preach in the New Hurley Reformed Church next Sunday, March 18 at 11 a. m. Sunday school at 10 a. m. at the church hall. All are welcome.

The Union Lenten service will be held in the Wallkill Reformed Church Sunday evening March 18 at 8 p. m. The Rev. Stephen James of New Brunswick Seminary will be the speaker.

Mr. and Mrs. William DePew and family attended the funeral of Mr. DePew's mother, Mrs. Bertha DePew, of Plattekill, at the Sutton Funeral Home in Clintondale on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hammer and daughter, Judy, of New Paltz were recent callers at the home of Nicholas T. Cocks.

Mr. and Mrs. Valentine Garrison, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Garrison and family and Mrs. Catherine Miller called at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. John W. Tysee at Coxsackie on Sunday afternoon.

Cost Accountants Chapter to Hear Finance Expert

A. A. McFadden, controller of RCA Laboratories, Princeton, N. J. will be the principal speaker at a dinner-meeting of Mid-Hudson chapter of the National Association of Cost Accountants scheduled for Monday at the Nelson House, Poughkeepsie at 6:30 p. m.

The topic will be "Financial Consideration of New Product Development."

Mr. McFadden is a graduate of Wharton School of Finance, University of Pennsylvania and has completed specialized study at Graduate School of Engineering, New York University.

HE HAS BEEN associated with RCA since 1942. Previously, he held various accounting and treasury positions in textile, ceramics and non-ferrous metal refining industries. He is a member of the Controllers' Institute of America, Philadelphia Control; was charter president of the Trenton chapter, National Association of Cost Accountants and served as a vice president and director of the Philadelphia chapter.

In 1951 and 1953 he received the Lybrand Award Certificates of Merit for his papers on cost accounting for a research laboratory and industrial research for accounting problems.

Assembly Vote

right to register their cars next year. Insurance must provide for protection of up to $20,000 for personal injury and up to $5,000, with $500 deductible feature, for property damage.

Senate Republicans will caucus Monday night to determine what party position that they should take—if any— on the subject.

Besides the assembly-approved bill, they can consider an alternative plan advanced by Sen. John H. Hughes and Assemblyman Lawrence Rulison, Syracuse Republicans.

The Hughes-Rulison plan, worked out with Holz, provides for establishment of a compulsory indemnification fund raised by assessing uninsured drivers $30 apiece when they register their cars each year. It would cover all injuries and damage not collectible through insurance.

THERE IS a possibility that the Senate might choose this plan over compulsory insurance, although Senate Democrats might be expected to follow the lead of their Assembly colleagues. It is doubtful, however, that Heck, who is pushing the compulsory plan, would accept the Hughes-Rulison measure in his house.

The principle bill in the bipartisan legislation affecting consumers is the one governing installment sales of motor vehicles. It would impose ceilings on the amount of credit services charges that may be added to the cash price of new or used cars.

THE CEILINGS would be:

1. For new cars, not more than $7 per $100 per year.
2. Used cars less than two models old, not more than $10 per $100 per year.
3. Other used cars, not more than $13 per $100 per year.

Sen. Walter G. McGahan, Queens Republican, Sen. Nathaniel T. Helman, Bronx Democrat, and Assemblyman Bernard Dubin, Queens Democrat, are sponsoring the three-bill program.

They said in a statement that credit charges currently ran as high as $35 and beyond.

THE SECOND bill would require licensing by the superintendent of banks of all sales financing agencies not already under supervision of the Banking Department. The superintendent would be empowered to investigate finance agencies, acting either on the basis of complaints or on his own suspicions.

The third bill would place a limit on charges for repossession of goods and require a detailed accounting of repossession costs.

The three sponsors said they hoped that, through the measures, "a large part of the abuses now plaguing buyers of automobiles from a relatively small number of irresponsible dealers will be eliminated."

They said Harriman and the legislative leaders had agreed to call a conference on consumer credit problems early this spring to try to work out a bipartisan legislative program for the 1957 Legislature.

Feuerstein . . .

until the hour of actual sight of the previously blind recipient.

THE ENTIRE success of this program obviously depends on the number of pledges, he said. As of January 1 there were 538 pledges from Kingston — "less than 2.7 per cent of the population"—yet from these a total of five pairs of eyes passed through the coordinating hands of the Kingston Lions Club blind committee and eventually produced a return to sight of 10 individuals.

"The purpose of the booth, therefore, is to obtain as many pledges as possible with the ultimate aim that every deceased person in the Kingston area will relive in the restored sight of another."

HE SAID the corneas, or outer membranes, of the pledged eyes would be transplanted to those blinded by a corneal affliction. Statistics show, he said, that these corneal diseases cause approximately 12 per cent of the total blindness. One-third of this number are excellent surgical risks and, in view of the limited number of corneas, surgery is limited to favorable cases. At present there is a need nationally for 22,000 corneas.

Dr. McGrath explained that eyes could not be stored as in a blood bank, but must be removed within four hours after death. Through the local coordination of the Kingston Lions Club blind committee and the Sight Conservation Society of Northeastern New York, the corneas mus t be transplanted within 36 hours.

HE CALLED attention to the following "most pertinent facts for the interest of the public":

1. There are no religious objections to pledging eyes. All faiths have endorsed the program.
2. Anyone regardless of age or condition of eyes may pledge, No eye examination is necessary. Those eyes not satisfactory for transplant will be used in research.
3. The removal of the eyes does not mar the appearance of the body in any way.
4. All the next of kin of the donor need do is to notify the Lions Club of the Schnectady office.
5. There is a long waiting list of recipients but local case receive priority.

The late Mr. Feuerstein, 68, international counselor of International Association of Lions Clubs, died February 26. His outstanding work as leader in Kingston Lions Club gained for him national and international recognition. He served the local club in many offices, including secretary and president.

HE ROSE TO district offices, having served as district governor of District 20-0 of New York State Lions Association during which time he also served as chairman of the New York State Council of District Governors.

Mr. Feuerstein retired about three years prior to his death, having worked for many years as a claims adjuster for Markel Service Company of New York city.

Members of the sight conservation and blind committee of the Lions Club are as follows: Dr. McGrath, newly elected director in the Sight Conservation Society of Northeast New York, chairman; Robert Schnitzer, Warren Smith, Dr. Sidney Pauker, the Rev. Robert T. Shellenberger, Donald Decker, Roland Augustine, David Kline and George Svirsky (original liason member to the Schenectady depot.)

May Quiz 50 Persons

Miami, Fla., March 15 (AP)—Activity in the Bronx, N. Y., probe of a New York hoodlum's 1954 slaying stirred this area today with a prospect that half a hundred individuals will be quizzed by Florida authorities for prosecutors in New York. Asst. Dist. Atty. Albert Blinder of the Bronx said he would send to Miami a confidential list of 500 persons for the states' attorney to question. Blinder said he hoped to unearth clues to the killing of Vincent Macri through a possible link in the Macri case with the 1955 disappearance of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ferri of Miami.

Malenkov in London

London, March 15 (AP) — Ex-Premier Georgi M. Malenkov arrived by plane today with a group of Soviet electrical experts for a three-week tour of Britain. Tight security precautions prevailed. It was Malenkov's first trip to the western world. Now minister of power stations, a deputy premier and a member of the ruling Presidium of the Soviet Communist party, he heads a 14-man delegation which is to tour British power and electrical plants.

Zakseski Asking Public Hearing On Cattle Yard

Fourth Ward Alderman Frank J. Zakseski today disclosed contents of a letter to Zoning Board Chairman Joseph Avis, in which he asks for a public hearing on whether a "cattle yard" should be permitted to continue operating in the ward at Newkirk avenue and Maple street.

Alderman Zakseski indicated he was not familiar with a petition presented by Supervisor Joseph J. Turck last October, since he was not in office then, but he said he is making inquiries concerning it.

THE ALDERMAN said he has talked to the mayor and city engineer, "and I have also been informed of the zoning laws prohibiting cattle yards in this particular zone." He was led to believe, he said, that the petition was referred to the health board, and no violations were found as far as that board was concerned.

"We disagree with the Board of Health's findings," he said. "I am also aware that the mayor did refer this petition to the zoning board, and as far as we are concerned, there has been no action taken."

THEREFORE, he said, "we are requesting that the zoning board exercise its powers, as is necessary to eliminate this cattle yard, or that a public hearing be held so that the people of this area may express their views, and the zoning board explain why no action has been taken.

The alderman indicated that if the zoning board takes no action at its March 21 meeting, he will bring it to the Common Council at its next meeting.

Attorney Joseph Avis, chairman of the zoning board, in a letter dated March 13, said no petition had been presented to the board, and he suggested that one be presented before the board meets March 21, if it is plannd to have it considered at the meeting.

IT WAS LEARNED today that former Alderman-at-large Joseph Kelly had referred the petition presented by Supervisor Turck to Mayor Frederick H. Stang and the zoning board, but it apparently had not reached the board.

Mayor Stang said, however, that he had received a communication from the council and discussed the situation with the health board, which had found nothing wrong from a health standpoint.

The Avis letter suggested that Alderman Zakseski endeavor to have the Common Council authorize the printing of copies of the city's zoning law so that they would be available to the public. Only two copies have existed since he has been head of the board, Avis said.

West Point Sets Plans to Build $10 Million Hall

West Point, N. Y.—Founders Day ceremonies at United States Military Academy Friday will mark the start of construction of the $10 million modern academic building to replace the old riding hall.

Robert T. Stevens, former Secretary of the Army will be the guest of honor at the ceremonies which will begin at 11 a. m.

INITIATED in 1945, following the authorized expansion of the Corps of Cadets, the project to provide needed additional academic space was finally realized with the assistance of Mr. Stevens during his tenure as Secretary of the Army.

Constructed in 1909 at a cost of three million dollars, the riding hall is the largest masonary building of its type in the world. The independently trussed roof, sheathed with seven tons of copper, provided an unobstructed riding area of 565 by 65 feet, with space for tack rooms and picket lines increasing the overall dimensions to 600 by 94 feet.

THE BUILDING has not been fully utilized since instruction in horsemanship at the Military Academy was discontinued in 1946.

Present plans, submitted in competition by the firm Delano and Aldrich of New York, call for the construction of a modern concrete and steel building inside the present shell of the riding hall.

The new building will provide 191 classrooms, offices for eight academy departments, two auditoriums, plus additional study and laboratory space.

The contract was awarded to the firm of Grove, Shepard, Wilson and Kruge of New York by the office of the New York District Engineer.

Completion of the project is scheduled for September, 1957.

$29,389 Distributed To Rotron Workers

Woodstock, March 15 — Last Friday J. C. van Rijn, president of the Rotron Manufacturing Company, distributed another profit-sharing check to the employes of the company. The disbursements covered profits made during October, November and December of 1955, and the employes participated to an amount of $29,389, nearly double the figure paid out over the previous quarter. The profit-sharing fund amounts to about 19 per cent of the participating payroll for the quarter.

Employment at the Rotron Enterprises totals about 220 persons—48 women and 192 men. For the benefit of new employes, Mr. van Rijn outlined once again the aims of this liberal profit-sharing plan pointing out that in return the company expects from every employe a measure of behavior and attitude which reflects the fact that they are in effect part owners in the business. Employes who fail to appreciate such a situation have no place in Rotron's ranks, Mr. van Rijn said.

A further announcement was made to the effect that Rotron is increasing the number of paid holidays from seven to eight per year. The new eighth holiday will be given on Good Friday.

The Rotron Company held open house Saturday, March 10, to allow the employes to inspect Rotron's products which are being sent to the Kingsbridge Armory in New York city for the Institute of Radio Show, which will be on view from March 21 through 24. The hours at the open house were at the following: Rotron Control Corporation from 1 to 2 p. m.; Plant No. 1 and No. 3 of the Rotron Manufacturing Company were from 1 to 3 p. m. Manufacturing and laboratory techniques were demonstrated and a buffet lunch was served between 2 and 3 p. m. for 250 persons.

Motor Club Plans Fewer '56 Events

Woodstock, March 15 — The Woodstock Motor Club has announced a decision to concentrate on fewer but better events for the coming year.

According to Gale Arnold, publicity director for the club, all indications point to a record number of entries in the Windham Mt. Top Rally, to be held at Windham, June 8, 9 and 10, for which the Woodstock Motor Club will act as host club. Inquiries are coming from as far west as Washington, Iowa, etc. Check point personnel are being recruited from clubs in the area covered by the Eastern Conference of Sports Car Clubs. Ex-GAMR ralliests will meet some familiar faces at check points. The Woodstock Motor Club as host club is sponsoring the club team trophies at Windham. Woodstock entries will not be eligible for these trophies.

Howard Humphries reports that the roads in the mountains are so bad at this time of year that he has had to postpone the route check on Woodstock "Trial & Tour" slated for April 14 and 15. The event has not been postponed, only the route check.

The Woodstock Motor Club will hold an invitational Concours and Car Capers event Sunday, July 15.

The next meeting of the club will be held Wednesday, March 21, at 7:30 p. m. at the Woodstock Fire Hall.

Archbishop Writes On Winter Schedule

Woodstock, March 15— Archbishop William H. Francis, of the Church-on-the-Mount (Old Catholic), Woodstock, writes that he looks forward to returning soon to his church on the mountain below Meade's Mountain House. During the past winter he has been giving many talks in and about Atlanta, Ga., the first at Atlanta International Club. More recently he has spoken twice at the Columbia Theological Seminary (Presbyterian); and at the Decatur Presbyterian Church where he had on the platform with him the well-known Methodist Bishop Arthur Moore, two past moderators of the Presbyterian Church and the present moderator of the Waldensian Church of Italy.

In the Atlanta Unitarian Church he spoke to a mixed audience of Negroes and white people. This is a "white" church. Another talk was given to a convention of Baptist nurses. His most recent address was at the Rice Memorial Presbyterian Church (Negro). He is hoping shortly to fill an engagement at the University of the South Sewanee where Father Augustine who is with him attended seminary and has many friends.

Forno Is Elected New Rotary Head

Woodstock, March 15 — Election of Rotary officers for the 1956-57 year took place at the weekly meeting of the Woodstock Rotary Club, at Deanie's Monday night. Joseph Forno was named as the new president. Walter Van Wagenen was chosen vice president and Francis W. Antenucci and Dr. Edward Gurland were reelected secretary and treasurer, respectively and Paul Fenster was elected sergeant at arms. Directors elected for three years were: Joseph Forno, Deanie Elwyn and Joseph Fitzsimmons. The new officers will not assume their duties until July 1.

Larry Bogart gave a short talk on the importance of the Crippled Children's Drive, which the Woodstock Rotary Club will sponsor in the Town of Woodstock. Joseph Forno will be chairman of the drive and Francis W. Antenucci will act as coordinator.

This year, the Crippled Children's Drive is being sponsored by all the Rotary clubs in Ulster county and Mr. Bogart is chairman of the county organization. Containers are being distributed to all business establishments in the township. Letters are also being sent to all residents, explaining the importance of the drive. The kickoff date was March 10 and the drive will continue until April 10.

A large group of Kingston Rotarians were guests of the Woodstock club Monday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Van Wagenen will represent the local club at the 40th anniversary dinner of the Kingston Rotary Club, Saturday, March 24. Since the Kingston club received its charter in 1916, it has sponsored three clubs—Phoenicia, Woodstock and Poughkeepsie.

New Scout Leaders Introduced Monday

Woodstock, March 15—Members of Boy Scout Troop 34 were introduced to their new scoutmaster, Walter Balk and assistant scoutmaster, William Pascal at Monday night's meeting in the Dutch Reformed church basement.

The scouts also were introduced to the new members of the scout committee, Richard Brean and Eugene Rathgeber.

Walter Balk is serving in two capacities. He is also connected with the Ulster county district.

Village Notes

Woodstock, March 15 — Mr. and Mrs. Willard Shultis celebrate their 34th wedding anniversary March 19, and Mr. Shultis his birthday March 20.

Miss Lorna Bridgett of Meridan, Conn., was an overnight guest of Miss Carol DeWitt, at her home in Zena Friday. Miss Bridgett, a member of the Meridan High School Band and Miss DeWitt, a member of the Kingston High School Band, played in the band concert at the George Washington School, Kingston, Friday night.

Firemen Discuss Firehouse Plans

Woodstock, March 15 — The regular monthly meeting of the Woodstock Fire Company No. 2 was held at the Wittenberg Sportsmen's Club Monday night. Plans were discussed for the completion of the new firehouse.

The doors were hung last week by Clifford Elliott as his donation. Through the efforts of Walter Rollack, of the Wayside Glass Company, installation of the windows has almost been completed, as their donation to the volunteer firemen.

It was also announced that Nelson Shultis had donated $100 worth of lumber for the firehouse.

Refreshments were served by Arthur Barone, Charles Bailey and Adam Schreiner after the business meeting. This was followed by a game period.

Many Attend Dance

Woodstock, March 15—An excellent attendance was repored at the adult square dance sponsored by the Woodstock Parent-Teacher Association Saturday night at the Woodstock School.

Working Millionaire

Carbondale, Ill. (AP)—Edward S. Allen, 29, Southern Illinois University student, still is working his way through college although he'll be a millionaire next year. He works in a factory at Herrin and his wife, Mary, is a fountain attendant at the University. He is an industrial education major. An aunt at Miami, Fla., left him between $800,000 and $1 million but he cannot claim his inheritance until he is 30.

Dangerous Foe Kept From Lead

By OSWALD JACOBY ...
Written for NEA Service

Today's hand is an exercise in keeping the dangerous opponent out of the lead. You must develop three diamond tricks without allowing West to gain the lead, since West would easily defeat you with the long spades.

How do you go about it with only two entries to the dummy? Try to work it out for yourself, and then compare notes with the solution of Commander Ernest Pawle, who constructed the hand.

East discards a heart on the first trick, and you win with the ace of spades. Your next step is to lead the ace of diamonds. East cleverly throws away the king of diamonds, waiting for a chance to get rid of the jack of diamonds also. Then West would be able to win the third round of diamonds with the ten.

You must foil this little plot by entering dummy with the queen of hearts and leading a diamond from the dummy. East plays the jack of diamonds, but you refuse to win the trick.

East returns a club, and you win with the king. Now you cash the queen of diamonds to get it out of the way, and you can get to dummy with the ace of clubs to cash the last diamond. Thus you make sure of nine tricks.

play, is the leading out of the ace of diamonds at the second trick. You can't make the hand by leading the first diamond from the dummy. East would play the jack, and you'd have to finesse the queen. Then you'd still need two entries to dummy—one to make sure of letting East win a trick with the king of diamonds, and the other to cash the last diamond.

NOW HE'LL REACH 50—Harvey Leewright, 71, loves children—and teaching. That's why he's so happy at being re-elected teacher-principal of Houston elementary school in Sulphur Springs, Tex., for the 1956-57 term. Now he'll be able to achieve his dream, teaching for 50 years. Leewright, who starts his golden anniversary as a teacher next year, believes in today's children. He says he's never had a "bad boy or girl in my school." He's shown with two of his students, Wilma Roberts and John Buchanan.

Kefauver Blasts Minnesota Party For Adlai Backing

St. Cloud, Minn., March 15 (AP)—Sen. Kefauver (D.-Tenn.) lashed out last night at Minnesota's Democratic-Farmer-Labor (DFL) party for its endorsement of Adlai Stevenson in the state's presidential primary Tuesday.

"Outside of those in Minnesota, I've done more for the DFL cause than anyone else," Kefauver told an audience of about 700. "I came to Minnesota in 1952 on behalf of the DLF candidates.

"BUT WHEN they gathered and selected the other candidate (Stevenson), I wasn't given a hearing or an invitation."

It was the first time the Tennessean had assailed the DFL in his campaign swing through Minnesota. His criticism was believed inspired by the fact that Ray Hemenway, state DFL chairman, this week ruled against a joint appearance by Kefauver and Stevenson at a celebration Saturday in Moorhead.

Hemenway said that to present the pair from the same platform would give the "impression that they are debating one another," whereas, he added, regardless the primary outcome, both working for a Democratic tory in November."

Weekly Food Review

(By The Associated Press)

Food stores this week again offer a big variety of meats at special prices. A widely featured item is that St. Patrick's Day favorite—corned beef.

And just in case the day for wearing green brings Paddy's pig to your mind, a number of big chains are also running pork specials. One retailer commented that his weekend pork prices were the lowest "in years and years."

PORK WAS higher on the wholesale market this week, however, and some rise can be expected on the retail level generally by next week.

Although many stores have reduced corned beef for the weekend, the price is still high in comparison with many other meats.

FRYING CHICKENS and veal are popular specials in many areas. In scattered places beef prices are down but generally the market for beef has been steady recently.

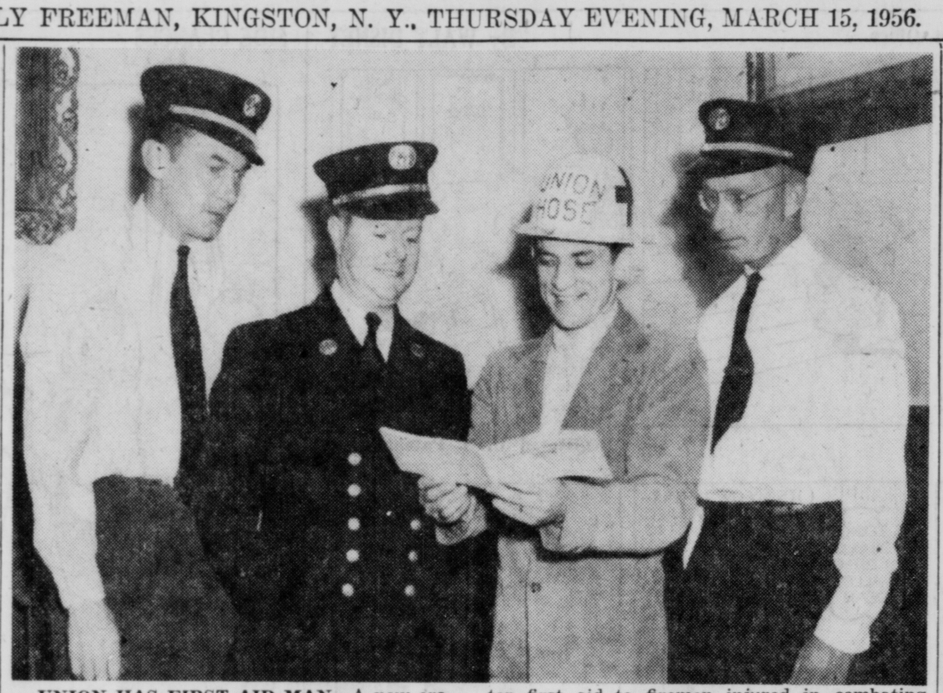

Lamb, a popular spring and Easter season item, is a few cents higher on the wholesale market but for the weekend a number of stores are offering it at lower prices. The wholesale rise, however, can be expected to be reflected at the retail level shortly, unless the wholesale price, which has been bouncing around lately, drops off again.

ON VEGETABLE counters onions and potatoes remain the outstanding buys, although potatoes are up a little this week. Florida started shipping new potatoes several weeks ago but supplies are still generally light and the full force of this new potato crop has not yet been reached.

Good buys in vegetables are cabbage, carrots, beans, broccoli, iceberg lettuce, pascal celery, sweet potatoes, turnips endive and escarole.

Tangerine prices dropped a little in some markets this week. Other good buys in fruits were oranges, grapefruit and apples.

Cape Cod produces about 70 per cent of the world's supply of cranberries.

UNION HAS FIRST AID MAN—A new era in local firemanic affairs took place during the February meting of Union Hose Company No. 4 when Edward Bruck, third from left, was elected first aid man of the company. Greeting the new official are (l-r) William Jones, second assistant foreman; Donald Matthews, foreman and Edward Dasher, first assistant foreman. Duties of the first aid man will be to administer first aid to firemen injured in combating fires or for any emergency to which the company is summoned. The company has purchased a new first aid kit and is now part of the unit's apparatus. Mr. Bruck is currently attending first aid courses sponsored by the Ulster County Chapter of the American Red Cross. (Freeman photo)

Saugerties Bus Drivers Hear Talk at School

Relationship between school bus driver, parents and pupils was discussed by Otto Stewart, of the State Education Department, who addressed school bus drivers and a parents' group at the Saugerties Central School Monday evening.

Mr. Stewart said "the bus is a classroom on wheels," and parents, children and the school all have duties to perform in making it succeed.

HE WAS introduced by Grant D. Morse, superintendent of schools, who pointed out that approximately 850 pupils are transported daily in the Saugerties Central School system. Nineteen different bus drivers operate the buses, Mr. Morse said.

Mr. Stewart said it is important for the pupil and bus driver, too, to be on time, otherwise other pupils are kept waiting and there is a temptation for the driver to speed. Sudden stopping of a bus at relatively high speeds, he said, contributed to rear-end collisions.

He also stressed the pupil's behavior on a bus and said bus transportation is a privilege not a "must."

STRESSING THE importance of school bus safety, Mr. Stewart said all youngsters in the state who have been killed in bus accidents lost their lives in the afternoon, not in the morning, which, he suggested, meant that fatigue entered into the picture.

The talk was the fifth in a series for school bus drivers. Another session is scheduled April 16.

The board of education distributed to school bus drivers a new manual on bus transportation. It is a six-page mimeographed bulletin excerpted from a recent pamphlet entitled "Transportation," issued by the State Education Department and covers subtsantially all phases of the bus driver's work.

WALLKILL NEWS

Art Exhibit Held By Women's Club

Wallkill, March 15 — At the regular meeting of the Wallkill Woman's Club held Friday, a most interesting Art Exhibition took place. Mrs Robert J. Robinson, program chairman, introduced Mrs. Dorothy McCann, president of the Winding Hills Art Club of Montgomery, who explained the painting displayed and then gave her idea of art stressing the individual, personal and spiritual values contained in works of art.

Mrs. Marjorie Hess, secretary of the Art Club gave the history and accomplishments of the club and told of its next showing which will be May 22 and May 23.

Mrs. Charles Penney introduced the Girl Scout Leaders and their troops entertained with the following: Mrs. Carleton Harris' and Mrs. DuBois' troop sang "The Riddle Song" and "Walking at Night."

Mrs. Herman Mahlandt Leader and Miss Catherine Hammesfahr, assistant had their girls sing "I'll Never Walk Alone" and they then did two dances, "Come and Dance With Me" and "A Russian Peasant Dance."

The Wallkill Girl Scouts are sponsored by the Woman's Club and each year they take part in the club program during Girl Scout Week.

It was announced that the annual luncheon will be held Friday, May 25 at the Arden House at Harriman.

An invitation was also issued by the Walden Woman's Club to attend its meeting Monday, March 19 at 3 p. m. at the municipal building in Walden. The topic will be "Relaxation for the Club Woman" and anyone desiring transportation should contact Mrs. Arthur Terwilliger.

The next regular meeting to be held is April 13 at 7:30 p. m. at the Community Room of the Valley National Bank. This will be a Hobby Show with Mrs. William Tompkins, as chairman. Hobbies may be brought in at 3 p. m. or before the meeting.

Members are also reminded to bring an article for sale for the fair table which will be sponsored by the ways and means committee. Articles may be given before to Mrs. Graham Burmeister as chairman.

At the close of the meeting, refreshments were served the members, guests and the Girl Scouts. Mrs. Charles E. Penney was social chairman, with Mrs. William Tompkins at the tea table.

Family Group Meets

Wallkill, March 15—The regular meeting and luncheon of the Family Pot Luckers was held recently at the home of Mrs. LeRoy Masten. Those attending were Mrs. Edward Masten, Mrs. George Geyer, Mrs. Thomas Barroman, Mrs. Roberta Van Wagenen, Mrs. Emmet Conklin, Mrs. George Sherwood, Mrs. Jennie Bobbington, Mrs. George Decker, Mrs. Clifford Caswell, Mrs. Lulu Masten and Mrs. LeRoy Masten.

Demonstration Unit Meets March 20

The Wallkill Home Demonstration Unit of the Home Extension Service will hold its regular meeting Tuesday, March 20 at the Community Rooms of the Valley National Bank.

The morning session will open promptly at 10:30 and Mrs. Laurence Dolan, member of the New Hurley Unit will give a lesson to the group on "Good Grooming."

A covered dish luncheon will follow, and in the afternoon projects will be discussed for the next year. Nature slides will also be shown the group. All members are urged to attend.

Group Meets Monday

A regular meeting of the teachers and officers of the Wallkill Reformed Church Sunday school will be held on Monday, March 19 at 8 p. m. at the home of the superintendent Fred C. Terwilliger. All members are urged to make a special effort to attend.

Workers Announced For Red Cross Drive

Houses all over the entire area of the Town of Shawangunk are displaying the 75th anniversary sticker of the Red Cross, signifying they have contributed to the Red Cross fund drive of 1956.

Mrs. Joseph W. Morris, chairman, announces that the drive is progressing favorably and urges all residents to support the Red Cross.

Canvasers and solicitors of the drive are: Dorothy Greer, Louise Scarzello, Esther Bedell, Mrs. Steen, Mrs. H. Holtermann, Miss Bessie Powell, Mrs. Karl Kippan, Mrs. McCord, Mrs. L. Bernhardt, Rev. Father McKinney, Mrs. Vincent J. Lawless, Mrs. J. M. Lattimer, Mrs. Martha Muller, Mrs. Dolores Holze, Mrs. Ira Wickner, Mrs. J. Alan VandeMark, R. J. Robinson, Mrs. William Young, Mrs. Walter Roberts, Mrs. Eugene Terwilliger, Mrs. S. Kelso Sloan, Mrs. Charles E. Penney, Mrs. J. McClung, Mrs. Lawrence Mower, Mrs. LaVerne Hastings, Mrs. George Brach, Mrs. Robert H. Terwilliger, Mrs. Howard Terwilliger, Mrs. George Parliman, Walter G. Smith, Mrs. George Foster, Mrs. Everett Poole, Mrs. Percy Mack and Mrs. George Geyer.

Also aiding are Mrs. Jesse McHugh, Mrs. Gregston Greer, Mrs. John E. Sloan and Mrs. Fred C. Terwilliger.

The drive will continue until March 31, and "we hope to go over our quota," said Mrs. Morris today. This year's quota for our township is $950, an increase over last year's contributions of more than $300 due to the depleted funds of the Red Cross as a result of the flood disaster work in Ulster county.

Easter Cantata Set In Church March 28

The Wallkill Reformed Church choir will present its annual Easter cantata "Calvary" on Friday evening, March 28 at 8 p. m. in the church. Soloists will be Hubert Hendrie, well-known for his many television appearances on the Elgin Hour, Mrs. Grace Dascher, Miss Marjorie DuBois, and Alan VandeMark. Another feature for the audience attending will be he piano and organ duet during the offertory by Mrs. George Parliman and Mrs. Louise Didsbury.

The well-balanced choir of more than 35 voices will be under the direction of Jack Henderson, with Mrs. Louise Didsbury at the organ.

Legion Ladies Plan April Card Party

A meeting of the Rose-Sheeley American Legion Auxiliary was held Monday evening at the Community Room of the Valley National Bank with Mrs. Grace Holland, unit president, conducting the meeting.

Reports showed donations to the Heart Fund, Red Cross and the Education of a Korean orphan funds. Also to the hostess fund for the infirmary at the "Ida N. Ashby Memorial" at Tupper Lake, which was formerly called the "Lady of the Lake."

A birthday gift of money was also presented to the legion post.

Legislation chairman, Mrs. Hazel Covart read a report on the McCarran-Walter immigration act and also distributed a letter to co-sign asking support on bill H. R. 7886 regarding veteran's pensions.

Mrs. Kathleen Birdsall was named chairman of a card party to be held the first part of April for the "Heart and Cancer" fund of the auxiliary. Date will be announced. Mrs. Vivian McLean, Mrs. Hazel Kaup and Mrs. Anna Lown will serve with her on the committee.

On March 26, the auxiliary and legion will be hosts to the Ulster County Legion meeting at the Central School. Those appointed from the auxiliary to act on the refreshment committee were Mrs. Florence Morehouse, Mrs. Gertrude Cameron, Mrs. Edna Roach and Mrs. Dorothy Wickes, and Mrs. Kathleen Birdsall.

A memorial prayer was offered for the late member, Mrs. Rose Bowden, who was a past president and also had served as secretary and treasurer of the unit in former years.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting by Mrs. Mae Terwilliger, Mrs. Lillian Wood and Mrs. Edna Roach.

Area Briefs

Mrs. Harry Morehouse entertained the Jolly Eight Card Club Tuesday night at their home.

Mrs. James McLinden spent a day this week with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Rugiero of Wallkill.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin L. Humphrey enjoyed a weekend visit at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Thomas Brogan and family at Yonkers.

Sabbath Legislation Criticized by Council

Syracuse, N. Y., March 15 (AP) —A Sabbath law bill before the Assembly has been criticized by the New York State Council of churches.

The bill provides exemption from present Sabbath laws for anyone in New York city who "uniformly observes a day other than Sunday as a day of rest."

A resolution distributed throughout the state yesterday by the council said in part: "We oppose further commercialization of Sunday and believe present Sabbath laws should be rigorously enforced. However, because of our belief in freedom of religion for all, we support an exemption from Sunday closing for those who, for religious reasons, regularly close their places of business on a day other than Sunday and regularly observe that day as a holy day.

"A further fault of this bill is its implication that this privilege of exemption would be granted only to residents of New York city."

The resolution was issued by the Rev. Theodore L. Conklin, associate general secretary of the state council, and the Rev. Wallace T. Viets, chairman of the council's legislative committee.

Soloists Announced In Music Festival

WILLIAM SPARKS

Soloists in the third annual Lenten music festival to be given by the Community Chorus Choir, Sunday, March 18, at St. James Church will be Guy Baker, dramatic tenor and William Sparks, baritone.

Mr. Baker turned to professional singing after five years as head of the music department in Franklin College, Indiana, where he developed a nationally known choir. A graduate of Westminster Choir College, Princeton, he took advance studies at the University of Michigan and received his Master of Music degree at Indiana University. He later taught voice and directed a women's choir.

As a member of the National Broadcasting Company TV Opera Theatre, Mr. Baker performed in the world premier performance of "Griffilkin" by Lucas Foss. He is known for his oratorio work throughout the eastern and midwest United States.

William Sparks, baritone, toured the United States as a member of the Wagner Opera Company. During 1946 he toured Europe as a member of the USO camp shows singing the role of Freshie in "Good News."

Mr. Sparks holds a Bachelor of Music degree from North Texas State College and is a member of the Juilliard Opera Company with whom he has appeared in two Mozart Operas, "Impressario" and "Cosi Fan Tutte." He also sang in "Capriccio" by Strauss.

The Messrs. Sparks and Baker will sing the solo parts of Stainer's "Crucifixion" beginning at 7:30 p. m., in St. James Methodist Church.

Former Resident Named New York Mother of Year

Mrs. Lester Personeus, a native of Acorn Hill, now residing at 67 Wayne avenue, Suffern has been named Mother of the Year of New York State according to an announcement by Mrs. William S. Shary of Baldwin, chairman of the American Mothers Committee, Inc., of New York State.

Mrs. Personeus now becomes a candidate for National choice of American Mother of the Year.

Incorporated in 1933 as a Committee of the Golden Rule Foundation the American Mothers Committee embraces all faiths. Mrs. Daniel A. Poling of New York city is national president of the association which is international in scope and is organized in each of the 48 states, District of Columbia, Alaska, Hawaii and Puerto Rico.

Addressing the jury which selected the New York state winner, Mrs. Shary emphasized that the objective of the organization is "to develop and strengthen the moral and spiritual foundation of the American home and to focus the attention of the general public on the important role of the mother in making the home, the indestructible foundation upon which our nation is built." The chairman stressed the fact that the mother chosen must embody traits highly regarded in mother; courage, cheerfulness, patience, affection, kindness, understanding and homemaking ability.

Wife of a shovel operator, the 1956 State Mother is 60 years old, has 11 children and 12 grandchildren. All the children have attended schools of higher education.

Her children are: Catherine a nurse; Lester, Jr. a Lt. Colonel in the United States Army Air Force stationed in Washington, D. C.; Harriet a nurse; Gordon a chemist; Douglas a county agent in Cortez, Colorado; Arlington an engineer. The aforementioned 6 children all served in the service of our country. The last five, all daughters, were too young to be in the service. Gloria is a designer with Vogue; Beverly a secretary; Constance also is a secretary; Dariel is a teacher; Priscilla, the youngest, is in her final year at Oneonta State Teachers College.

Mrs. Personeus was educated in Ulster county. She is an active member of the Suffern Methodist Church and belongs to the Order of the Arnaranth, Inc. and the Federation of Women's Republican Clubs.

The official citation to the State Mother will be presented this month by Governor Averell Harriman at a special ceremony in Albany. Mrs. Personeus will be honored the week preceding Mothers' Day with the 51 other state and territorial mothers at ceremonies in the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, New York city.

Onteora Announces Two Top Students

MARY JACKSON

DOROTHY PARSONS

Paul T. Runge, Director of Guidance at the Onteora Central School, made public today that Mary Jackson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jackson of Ashokan is the valedictorian of the Class of 1956 with an average of 91.27. She plans to attend State Teachers College at New Paltz and will pursue a program in elementary teaching. Miss Jackson has been a member of Outing Club, chorus, Commercial Club, Journalism Club, and the associate editor of the Year Book.

Dorothy Parsons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Parsons of Boiceville is the salutatorian of the class of 1956 with an average of 90.44. Miss Parsons was voted the most popular senior girl and typical teenager of Onteora. She has been accepted at State Teachers College at Cortland and plans to enter elementary teaching. She was elected to represent the Olive Legion Post at Girl's State at Skidmore College. She has been a member of the yearbook staff, Outing Club, president of Honor Society, sophomore treasurer of her class, and a member of chorus, Leader's Club and Journalism Club.

It was announced at the same time that Miss Norma Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew F. Thompson, Willow, has made the Dean's List at William Smith College, Geneva. She is pursuing a liberal arts course. Miss Thompson was valedictorian of the class of 1955 and recipient of the New York state scholarship. While in high school, she participated in Dramatics Club, Honor Society, was treasurer of Student Council, chairman of the English Festival, editor-in-chief of the Yearbook and a member of the school newspaper staff.

ADMIRING THE POSSESSIONS OF ANOTHER

A reader asks this question: "How far may one go in examining one's hosts' furnishings? Acquaintances came to see us for the first time the other evening and the wife made me very uncomfortable the way she kept looking at things, first one and then the next. Isn't it rude to make such curiosity noticeable?"

To admire some of the possessions of another can hardly be considered impolite. Of course if she really examined each one, as though appraising its worth, that would have been very rude.

Are They Engaged?

Dear Mrs. Post: My daughter who is a student at college has just written to me and told me that she received Bob's fraternity pin. Bob is a student at this same college whom she has been seeing steadily for the past year. Does this mean that they are engaged, and should I send a notice to the newspaper? Please advise me on this matter as this is all new to me and I want to be sure to do the right thing.

Answer: The giving of a fraternity pin does not in itself constitute an engagement. On the other hand, it may very well be that he gave her his pin as a pledge of their engagement. Surely you can write to your daughter and ask her whether she is engaged or not. If she says "yes," then wou may certainly send a notice to the newspaper.

Concerning the Wearing of a Hat

Dear Mrs. Post: Will you please tell me if it is correct to wear and keep on a hat at a private dinner party given in a private dining room of a large hotel?

Answer: With tailored street clothes you wear a hat correctly at any hour of the day or evening. But, in the evening with an afternoon dress, or simple evening dress, you should not wear a hat.

Caps Popular Again

New York, March 15 (AP)—Hats off to the cap, men—it's back again. And in high style, too. This ancient form of head covering, worn for centuries in one form or another, had all but followed the handmade nickel cigar into oblivion. A nifty new type of cap, called the "Ivy League" because of its first popularity on Ivy League college campuses, turned the trick.

WE Workers Still Manage Despite Extended Strike

Pittsburgh, March 15. (AP)—No matter how or when the prolonged Westinghouse strike finally is settled, it might be years before the average worker gets on his feet again financially.

Every day the strike rolls on just means this "little guy" is squeezed that much harder. The best available estimate of total wages lost exceeds 100 million dollars.

IT'S BEEN nearly five months since strikers have had a paycheck; five months without a steady income. How have they managed?

"We're not living high. But we're getting along. Nobody's starving, nobody's out in the street, nobody's cold. You couldn't expect more."

That capsule comment came today from Samuel Wilkins, chief union shop steward at Westinghouse Electric Corp.'s sprawling East Pittsburgh plant, largest in the firm's far-flung system and one of 40 struck since last October.

"ANYONE WHO has been cold or hungry or in need of medical care, we've taken care of them," said Wilkins, a fitter employed by Westinghouse for 22 years.

By "we" he meant the AFL-CIO International Union of Electrical Workers and its biggest, most powerful Westinghouse unit, Local 601. At the start of the strike Oct. 17, the local counted some 10,000 members. In all, the AFL-CIO IUE called out 44,000 workers.

Wilkins said he knew of no case where a Local 601 member was evicted, lost his home or had his auto repossessed—if he applied to the union for aid.

UAW Voices Opposition

Washington, March 15 (AP)—An elections reform bills now sponsored by 85 senators came under sharp attack from the United Automobile Workers union (UAW) today. The union called it inadequate and in some respects harmful. "The bill gives the appearance of action towards clean elections without providing the necessary substance to implement that appearance," said an analysis of the bill prepared by the UAW's Washington office. The statement was given to members of the Senate Rules Committee, to which the measure has been referred. One of them made a copy available to newsmen.

Airman Hooker is serving with the 6035th Fighter Training School, Matsushima, Japan, where he is completing a four-year enlistment. Airman Hooker is expected to return to the United States in September when he will be discharged.

GEORGE A. BECK, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Beck of 39 Emerson street has arrived at Fort Dix to begin initial eight weeks of basic training with A Battery of 880th F. A. Bn. of the "Fighting 69th." Infantry Division." After completing his initial training Private Beck will receive a two week leave. Formerly employed by Napoletano, Kelly and Saccoman of 243 Wall street, he attended Kingston High School, Siena College and Albany Law School. Pvt. Beck is married to the former Miss Margaret Anne Kelleher of 144 Corlies avenue, Pelham, New York city.

FRED GEORGE KUHNEL, commissaryman second class, U. S. Navy, husband of the former Rosemary McCardle, 107 Pine Grove avenue, was recently honorably discharged from the naval service after completing four years of active service.

For the first three years of his navy career the local man was stationed at the Naval Air Facility, Weeksville, N. C. He served the last year aboard the Destroyer Escort USS Maloy.

Cold Halts . . .

ground there to 11 inches. Total accumulation amounted to eight inches at Syracuse, Utica, Massena, Plattsburgh and Glens Falls.

The new snow ranged generally from around six to nine inches. Nine inches fell at Syracuse and nearly seven at Albany.

The Thruway Authority reported a slush accumulation along most of the superhighway, which "was slippery at spots." Maintenance crews were at work.

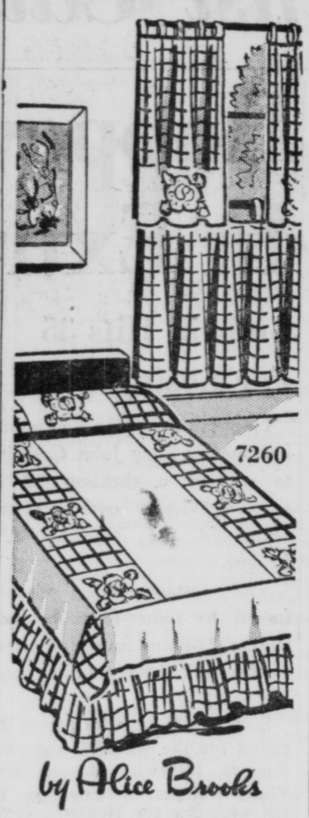

In the Syracuse area, the weather bureau said the nine-inch snowfall had a .95 moisture content and would amount to nearly an inch of water in the event of a quick thaw. However, the weathermen said, runoff from it would be gradual and the snowfall did not present a serious flood threat unless it thawed more rapidly than expected.

However, the weather bureau added another snow-packed storm was expected to hit the central New York area early tomorrow, bringing another two to four inches of snow.

Yesterday's snowfall brought the total in Syracuse for the winter to 120.8 inches, making it the second worst winter on record. The worst was a 128.7-inch total in 1944-45.

Northside city traffic was snarled as the snow added to the woes of motorists forced off flood-blocked Syracuse streets.

Water Halts Work For 100 Employes Following Fire

A fire that started automatic sprinklers at Hercules Powder Co. Wednesday halted regular operations in one department last night and today in the Port Ewen plant, while machinery dried.

Edward K. Lefren, works manager of the plant, said the fire started in the fuse room of the delay electric blasting cap department at 3 p. m., an hour before quitting time for the day shift. The plant's emergency crew, directed by D. H. Dunbar, resident engineer, reported it out at 3:30.

The 4 p. m. to midnight shift cleaned up the department instead of working on regular operations. They were to resume their usual jobs this afternoon.

Day workers on the 8 a. m. to 4 p. m. shift, idle today, will report for work Friday at the usual time.

The halt in regular work to allow machinery to dry affected about 100 employes, Manager Lefren said.

There were no injuries and the plant's outstanding safety record among more than 24 Hercules establishments throughout the nation stands at 559 days "without a tabulatable lost time injury."

Port Ewen recently received the explosives department award in recognition of its accomplishment.

The emergency crew assembled with dispatch to fight the fire, which was checked by the automatic sprinkling system. Mr. Lefren complimented the men for their efficiency.

Dulles in Manila

Manila, March 15 (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles arrived here today for an overnight stop in the Philippines en route home from the SEATO conference in Karachi. Dulles was to confer with President Ramon Magsaysay later today and to attend a state dinner tonight. In a statement at the airport, the secretary paid tribute to Magsaysay for drafting the Pacific Charter adopted in Manila when the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization was formed in September 1954.

Traveling Piano

St. Louis (AP)—Composer Lukas Foss didn't like the concert grand piano provided for his solo performance with the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra. A piano company rushed another from Belleville, Ill., 30 miles away. Foss tried it out but said he preferred the first piano after all. The company moved the second piano back to Belleville at its own expense. "It happens all the time," a company official sighed.

investment cost the basis for the PSC's rate-fixing.

Instead, he said, the company's rate of return should be related to the current reconstruction cost.

Eddy said the use of reconstruction cost figures in setting rates could lead only to higher utility charges.

McHugh said the rates for his company, largest in the Bell System, has been increased only 17 2/3 per cent since before World War 2—'the lowest in any state."

Eddy said he could see "utterly no reason" for two statutory concepts of rate-pegging.

If the Legislature did not revise the law, he told the committee, "the telephone company will say that the Legislature has given us a mandate to extend it preferential treatment."

A statement from Javits, read before the committee, said the attorney general is behind the Milmoe bill because it would provide a uniform law.

Break Into Jail

Tecumseh, Mich. (AP) — Police said that after the empty jail was locked up tight, three former prisoners broke in looking for a bottle of cognac officers confiscated from them and were caught leaving with: One police radio, a clock calendar, several keys, a stapling machine and a .32 caliber cartridge loader, but no cognac.

Cedaraps Unfurl Power Lineup Against Catskill Merchants

Carpouzis, Kaye Scott and Smith In Local Lineup

Kingston Tourney Set at Auditorium

Backs Cedaraps Sr., kingpins of the YMCA Basketball League, steps out against stiffer opposition when it takes on the Catskill Merchants tonight at 7:30 in the second round of action in the Kingston Basketball Tournament.

The second game, at the municipal auditorium, matches Trabassos of Poughkeepsie against Otisville.

Backs has its usual array of talent set to go—George Carpouzis and Marty Kaye among others and has been reinforced by the addition of Bud Smith, Wimpy's No. 1 point-pourer. Smith won't be on hand tonight since his Saugerties High school team will be battling in the semi-finals of the Class B Section Nine Tournament at Middletown.

CARPOUZIS, of course, is the man the Merchants must stop. The former Kingston High star has been a tough customer to handle all season and only recently whipped in 58 points for a new YMCA scoring mark.

Kaye, too, has been bombing the wickets at a steady pace and has earned the reputation as a consistent double figure scorer. Other Back players include Jerry Kaplan, Red Hinckley and Huyler Van Wagenen.

Catskill is banking on a brother act of Dave and Marv Sims. The Merchants also have a solid performer in Duke Deyo.

OTISVILLE has loaded up with players from last year's Monticello Vets, which finished runnerup in the tourney. In addition to regular holdovers, Roy and Bob Walker, Harvey Collins and Jack Clausman, the Mountain Villagers have recruited such notables as Lenny Schwartz and 6-5 Andy McCullough from Sullivan county.

For good measure, Coach Paul Seyfferth has also picked up veterans Bill Baker and Jay Decker, who starred with the Middletown Royals in the old Orange-Sullivan League.

TRABASSOS brings in another talent packed outfit composed of players from the Bridge City area. The Titans just completed another sucessful campaign in the Poughkeepsie City League.

Opening night action Tuesday went true to form with Affron's Oilers of Newburgh licking the Highland Falls Pelicans and defending champion Sickler's Delivery downing the Pine Plains A. C.

SPORTS by Charles J. Tiano

It will be high basketball drama if Pine Plains Bombardiers and Sickler's Delivery meet in the Kingston Basketball Tournament, a distinct possibility for March 27.

Gunning for the Bombardiers will be Siena College's all-time scoring leader, Timmy Hill. And who will be defending against Hill? None other than a bevy of current and past Siena basketball luminaries.

The drama runs deeper than that. While Hill cracked seven Siena individual scoring records, his all-round team value was suspect. He was gunner. And the feeling around the Loudonville campus was Frank Koenig of Kingston, co-captain with Tim, was the better balanced player.

Sickler's Delivery (Siena Seniors, if you please) will have their hands full with George Steutzle's star-studded Dutchess quintet. But you can expect that little extra defensive effort by Sicklers against their old buddy. How will it turn out? Tune in March 27 at the municipal auditorium.

• Flotsam and Jetsam:

Besides Tim Hill, the Bombardiers have such class players as Skip Brodhead, Richie Moran, the best scorer in Poughkeepsie; Bill Martin and others. But, we may ask, with Hill and Moran both gunning, doesn't something have to give? . . . New York-New Jersey Semi-Pro League meets Sunday at Poughkeepsie to draw up the 1956 schedule. . . . Johnny Ferraro is winning enough prizes in the Singles Classic to start a rummage sale. His most recent were a comb and brush set offered by Manie Colao's barber shop and a ticket to the Kingston Bowling Association's 20th annual dinner given by the Kingston Colonial baseball team. . . . When you talk about big men in basketball today, the inevitable is to compare San Francisco's Bill Russell with a 7-foot freshman at Kansas University, a kid who hasn't played a college varsity game yet, but whose talents are known to all—Will "The Stilt" Chamberlain. "Chamberlain," snorted Tom Gola of the Warriors. "He'd kill Russell."

• Names in the News:

Mrs. Anthony J. "Wiggie" DeLisio, club champion at Woodstock Country Club, has been on top of the woman's ladder at the Sunset Country Club golf course (St. Petersburgh, Fla.) since the start of the winter season. Mr. DeLisio recently won a set of woods and other articles in a Pro-Member tourney at Sunset. . . . Max Brugman and the missus off on a European tour today. Maxie hopes to get in some golf on one of those eight-hole courses in France. . . . Birthday coming up Saturday for restauranteur Bob Teetsel of The Barn. Few people know that Bob had an extensive baseball background before taking up the nightclub business. He piloted the Fuller Brush nine of Queens, a powerful semi-pro outfit in the pre-war period and helped develop players like Manny Gomez and Angelo Lucci, who later played with the Kingston Recreations.

• Of Men and Mice:

There must be a couple of baseball-minded oldies willing to organize a Little League in the Woodstock-Bearsville-West Hurley area. . . . Eyes of the bowling world will be focused on two all-time greats as the coveted ABC ten-year-high-average award is up for grabs in the current Rochester meet. Defending champion Junie McMahon of Lodi, N. J., has 204.79 average for 90 games. Only 18 pins behind is George Young, who owned the title in 1954 with 205.52. . . . A tip of the hat to Harold McKenzie, who at 70-plus still bends a potential hook ball in bowling. At one time he had one of the best curve balls in local baseball. Monty Stickles, all-time Poughkeepsie High School scorer, was turned down as an applicant for admission to West Point. Reason—poor eyesight! Monty, incidentally, picked three former Kingston High School stars on his all-time DUSO League opposition squad—Dick Bezemer, Skip Brodhead and Bill Haber. The others—Mickey Burkoski, Newburgh; and Mendy Ringle of Monticello.

Abe Streifer returned from Florida with wondrous tales about how he and Judge Harry Schirick whipped Alex Gerlak and Fritz Bruhn, three out of six, with one stalemate. The Brinks robbery was picayune compared to the number of bisques Schirick and Streifer mulcted from Alec and Fritz, believe us.

Knicks-Nats In Playoff For Third

(By The Associated Press)

The regular season of the National Basketball Assn. ended last night but there is a little matter of two ties to be broken before the six survivors—three in each division—swing into the playoffs Saturday.

Whether it'll be New York or Syracuse against Boston in the opener of the best-of-three first round playoffs in the Eastern Division depends on the outcome of a game between the two teams at Syracuse this afternoon (3 p. m., EST).

THIRD PLACE in the division was thrown into a deadlock last night when the Knicks defeated Philadelphia 115-108 and the Boston Celtics defeated Syracuse 122-103.

St. Louis and Minneapolis also ended in a tie for runnerup honors behind Fort Wayne in the Western Division when the Lakers downed the Pistons 100-96. The Hawks and Lakers meet Friday night for second money and then open their best-of-three playoff series Saturday in St. Louis.

The Knicks led all the way against the warriors last night.

Hoppeys Edge Empires In Extra Period, 72-71

Godwin Hits 35 For Losing Club

Hoppeys overcame a 35-point barrage by Long John Godwin to capture a thrilling 72-71 overtime victory over Empire Diner in the YMCA "A" League.

The restauranteurs were forced to come from behind with a 23-point fourth quarter to deadlock the regulation contest at 67-67.

Skip Brodhead, who potted 21 points for the winners, and Jim Ferraro hit with deuces and Ward Dunham a singleton in the overtime for Hoppeys. Godwin and Bill Haber each had a basket for Empires.

EMPIRES trailed 14-10 at the quarter mark but went ahead 31-28 at the intermission.

Godwin rimmed 14 fields and seven free throws. DuBois swished 16 for the losers. Brodhead made up his 21 markers with nine buckets and a trio of free throws. Ward Dunham hit 16, Jim Ferraro 12 and Eric Goercke 13.

Pfeiffers Fail In ABC Tourney

Rochester, March 15 (AP)—Pfeiffer Beer bowlers of Detroit held fifth place in the team standings of the American Bowling Congress tournament today after losing a bid for their fourth championship in five years.

The defending champions rolled up a total of 2,889 pins last night. Gerolmo's Wines and Liquors of Kenosha, Wis., still topped the division with 2,954 as the 53rd annual tourney moved into the 13th day of the 79-day schedule.

Steve Nagy led the Detroit team with 614 pins.

The standings in the regular singles, doubles and all-events divisions remained unchanged yesterday.

Yogi Berra has made 1,322 hits in 1,200 American League games since breaking in with the Yankees in 1946.

Streaking SFU and UCLA Set For Coast Thriller Friday

(By The Associated Press)

Western and eastern quarterfinals are the next step in the long haul to find the 1956 basketball champion in the NCAA tournament which already has proved a booby-trap for favorites.

The best game to date shapes up tomorrow night at Corvallis, Ore., when firing resumes after a two-day break with defending champion San Francisco meeting UCLA. It's an opening game for both in the title chase.

San Francisco is nursing the best winning streak ever in major college play with 51 consecutive victories. UCLA (21-5 for the season, has the No. 2 winning string at the moment with 17.

THE CORVALLIS twinbill sends Seattle (17-8) against Utah (22-5), the Skyline champ, in the nightcap. The other portion of the western quarterfinals is set for Lawrence, Kan., with SMU (23-2), king of the southwest, meeting Houston (17-5), the Missouri Valley winner; and Oklahoma City (19-6) playing Kansas State (16-7), the Big 7 champ.

In the eastern quarterfinals, Iowa (17-5), the Big 10 champion, tackles Morehead (Ky.) State (18-9), and Kentucky (19-5), subbing for Alabama as the Southeastern Conference entry, plays Wayne (18-1) in a doubleheader at Iowa City, Iowa, while at Philadelphia, it's Connecticut (17-9), the Yankee Conference winner, vs. Temple (22-3) the Middle Atlantic choice, and Dartmouth (17-10), the Ivy League champ, vs. Canisius (18-6).

Cubs Seeking Starters; Halt Giant Streak, 5-2

BY BEN OLAN

(By The Associated Press)

The competition for regular outfield jobs on the Chicago Cubs is tighter than a bank vault after closing time and Manager Stan Hack said today "once it gets straightened out this team might cause some trouble in the National League."

"Our outfield holds all the answers," he added. "Once I decide who's who and where and if the men I select come through, watch out."

And it'll take a lot of deciding because the Cubs, seeking to improve on their sixth place finish of last season, have almost as many outfielders as some teams have pitchers.

Here's a breakdown on the candidates for the outfield derby:

HANK SAUER — Veteran slipped to .211 last year but can hit long ball.

MONTE IRVIN — On comeback after being drafted from Giants' Minneapolis farm this winter.

WALT MORYN — Long ball hitter, fair in field. Picked up from Brooklyn Dodgers in winter trade involving Randy Jackson.

JIM KING—Speedy. Hit .256 for Cubs in 1955.

SOLLY DRAKE — Can fly. Broken leg sustained in spring training a year ago apparently healed. Excellent prospect.

GALE WADE — Also fleet footed. Batted commendable .310 for Los Angeles a year ago.

BOB SPEAKE — Sensational until July in '55, rookie year. Faded thereafter to paltry .218.

Then there's Eddie Miksis, tabbed for utility, and Ted Tappe, a .260 man in 23 games for the Cubs last season.

Some of the experts are giving the nod to Sauer, Drake and Moryn. But there's still lots of spring training to go before the regular campaign begins April 17.

DRAKE AND Sauer got one hit apiece and Irvin and Moryn went hitless yesterday as the Cubs snapped the Giants' four-game winning streak 5-2. Rookie third baseman Don Eaddy clubbed a two-run home run for Chicago, which got four hit pitching from Sam Jones, Don Kaiser and Johnny Briggs.

The Cincinnati Redlegs, also hoping to move into the National League's first division, handed the world champion Brooklyn Dodgers their fourth defeat in five starts 6-3. The Redlegs scored all their runs in the sixth inning and five of the tallies were unearned.

The St. Louis Cards also came up with a big inning, scoring five times in the third to beat the Detroit Tigers 7-4. A triple by Bill Sarni and four other safeties gave rookie Bob Host a rough time in the big frame.

THE NEW YORK Yankees had good and bad news for their followers. The regulars bowed to the Boston Red Sox 2-0 while the "B" team nipped the Pittsburgh Pirates "A" squad 8-5.

The Red Sox got four hit pitching from Bob Porterfield, Frank Baumann and Jerry Casale. Tommy Byrne was a wild man for the Yankees, walking four and was charged with the loss.

In other games, Bobby Shantz sent Kansas City's stock up a bit by turning in a one-run job for three innings although the Athletics bowed to the Milwaukee Braves 5-2. Rookie catcher Earl Averill homered in the seventh inning to give the Cleveland Indians a 7-6 victory over the winless Baltimore Orioles and Washington scored nine runs in a third inning rally sparked by Julio Becquer's bases loaded triple to beat the Philadelphia Phillies 10-6.

'I Wuz Robbed' Screams Mr. Basilio

Saxton Regains Welter Crown On Hotly Disputed Decision

Chicago, March 15 (AP)—Cruel-jabbing Johnny Saxton again held the world welterweight title today, but a hue and cry thundered for a re-match with dethroned and hopping mad Carmen Basilio which may come in June.

Saxton won a unanimous 15-round decision over Basilio in a nationally televised scrap at the Chicago Stadium last night which left most of 11,373 paid patrons and a host of video fans hollering that Carmen was short-changed.

Basilio bleated the title was "stole" from him.

The International Boxing Club said no rematch had been contracted, but admitted that one now was "definitely possible."

Chicago again is the logical site.

Seldom has a title match here stirred so much controversy, although there was no doubt in the minds of the three officials that the busy, ever-moving Saxton had won.

Basilio snarled that the deck is stacked against him in Chicago after three defeats in as many starts here.

The referee, Frank Gilmer, called it for Saxton, 144-142, while Judge Ed Hittz voted for Johnny, 145-138, and Judge James McManus, 147-140. The UP had Saxton ahead, 145-142.

That officials gave Saxton a margin of 16 points for the 15 rounds in the Illinois scoring system of 10 points to a round winner and from 9 down to a round loser.

On the other hand, a ringside poll showed a 13-7 preference for Basilio among the writers covering the fight. Basilio's majority came entirely from eastern writers, while Saxton's backing was all midwestern.

WEIGH IN FOR TITLE FIGHT—Johnny Saxton, left, challenger, gestures to Carmen Basilio during weigh-in ceremonies March 14 for the welterweight title bout in Chicago that night. Basilio, the champion weighed 146 and Saxton 146¾. Manipulating scales is Livingston Osborne, Illinois Athletic Commission chairman. (AP Wirephoto)

Unquestionably, Basilio forced the pace, but the sledge-hammer attack that won him the 147-pound crown from Tony De Marco last June 10 and flattened De Marco again in a Nov. 30 rematch was missing.

"They don't score double hooks here," growled Basilio.

ON THE OTHER hand, Saxton was an effective, if retreating sharpshooter. Using a stiff left jab with authority all the way, Saxton slashed a nick over Basilio's right eye and had the champ's nose bleeding in the fourth.

Basilio's left eye was almost swollen shut by the 15th round after which Saxton walked to his corner, disdainful of Basilio's effort to slap his back and apparently knowing he had recaptured the 147-pound title. Saxton had taken charge in the late rounds.

"I won the fight," protested Basilio. "Hold and run, hold and run, that's all he did."

Saxton first won the welter crown with an equally-disputed 15-round decision over then champion Kid Gavilan at Philadelpia, Oct. 20, 1954. He lost it in his first defense to De Marco on a 14th round TKO at Boston last April 1.

Aside from a skinned lower lip, the blacksmith-armed Saxton was unmarked.

"THOSE BOOS—they don't bother me," he said. "But I just don't know why the people feel badly because I won.

"I guess people want to see a knockout or a bang, bang, fight, or something spectacular. I fought Basilio just the way I planned. I knew I couldn't beat him at his own fight. I can't outslug him. But I knew I could outbox him. "I beat him to the punch a lot of times. I boxed and moved, boxed and moved—just like I planned."

One of the ironies of Saxton's triumph is that while the New York State Athletic Commission has agreed to recognize him as welter champ, he cannot fight in his home state.

That's because his manager, Frank (Blinky) Palermo, is banned in New York state. Palermo was absent at last night's fight which Saxton presumably fought as his own manager. But the federal government served a notice of levy for $17,875.37 on Saxton's take of $39,902 for income tax owed by Palermo. Saxton contends Palermo has nothing to do with this purse which incidentally was the same as Basilio received.

AN ODDITY occurred in the third round, when, with 49 seconds of the round left, Saxton's left glove was broken at the tip and the stuffings began to ooze out. The referee halted proceedings and led Saxton to his corner where Johnny donned a new six-ounce mitt. It took about a minute for the replacement.

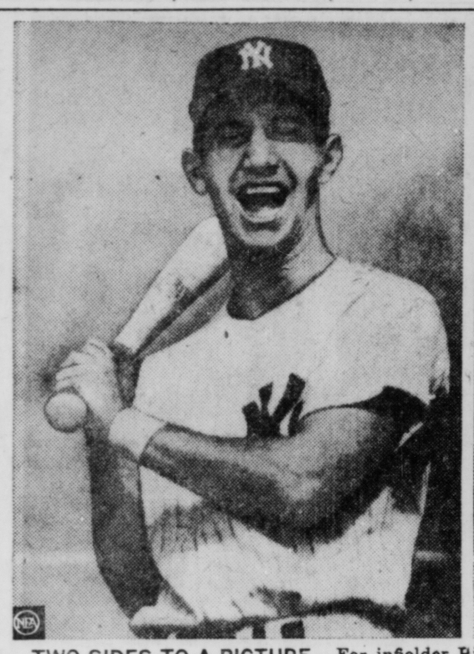

Basilio's best round was the second which he won on all three officials' cards. Saxton was in trouble, but Basilio let him get off the hook.

Saxton weighed 146¾ against 146 for Basilio.

Carolyn Draper Annexes Junior Title at Pico

Intermittent rain and varying snow conditions were no deterrent to Carolyn Draper of the Belleayre Ski Club who captured the junior women's division in the 11th annual Pico Derby at Pico Peak, Rutland, Vt.

Miss Draper negotiated the course in 3:48.3 over a trail on which cold powder snow prevailed on the upper Schuss while snow was rain-soaked and slow from the halfway mark to the finish line. Near the end of the day a heavy rain covered the entire mountain. The course dropped 2,000 feet vertical descent.

Rapps Down Schraders; Ramblers Defeat Backs

Ronnie Hits 22; Charlie Gets 20

Rapp's Express rolled up points like an adding machine to overwhelm Schraders, 96-53, in the YMCA "B" basketball league.

In the companion game, Ramblers cemented a 65-46 conquest of Back's Juniors with a 25-point fourth quarter.

EXPRESSMEN ran up a 23-6 quarter lead over Schraders and led 49-18 at halftime.

All six Rapps crashed into double figures as Ronnie Ashdown led with 22 and John Tomaseskie hooped 18. Tom Stenson and Bob Davis each canned 17 for Schraders.

Ramblers' big sharpshooter was Charlie Marable with 20 markers. Frank Secreto fired 16 for Backs Juniors.

Jaycees, Lawyers Win in '30'

Jack Doyle poured in 21 points as the Jaycees defeated the Businessmen, 36-30, in the Over 30 loop. The Lawyers thumped Hercules, 43-18, in the other half of the doubleheader.

Doyle, the Jaycees pivot operator, scored seven field goals and the same number from the foul line. The only other Jaycee to hit double figures was Mort Gazlay who bucketed 11 points.

THE BUSINESSMEN'S scoring was capped by Bob Sickler's 13 points. Link Crosby rimmed 10.

The Lawyers scoring efforts were shared by Tom Roach and Charlie Shultz who scored 16 and 13, respectively. John Burych ad Bob Walker scored six points apiece to lead the Hercules scoring.

Saugerties Biddy Cagers To Nationals on March 22

Nine boys make up the roster of the Saugerties Biddy Basketball squad which plays in the International Tournament March 22-23-24 at Dickerson gym in Jersey City.

The team, which recently beat Syracuse for the New York state championship, is composed of Steve Dickhaut, Robert Francello, Robert Chisano, Barry Wolven, Al Hrdlicka, Jerry Dungey, Bill Schirmer, Bill Eckoff and Don Kerin.

Donald Wolven is the coach of the club that conforms to Little League in baseball. To be eligible to play, lads cannot be more than 12 years old and taller than 5-6.

THE TEAM LEAVES for the tourney on the morning of the 2nd. Action starts that night with a quadruple-header at 6:30.

Pre-tourney activities are slated to start at 10 a. m. with a meeting of team representatives and officials. A "Dinner of Champions" is set for noon with Gov. Robert Meyner as guest speaker. Later on in the afternoon, all the teams are to take part in a giant parade.

The Saugerties youths are scheduled to stay the entire three days. They will make their headquarters at the Earl Hotel.

Pete Burke, winner of the PGA seniors' golf title at Dunedin, Fla., is assistant pro at the Cold Spring Country Club, Cold Spring Harbor, N. Y. He is a brother of Billie Burke, ex-National Open champion.

St. Mark's, CA, First Dutch Win

Don Simmons Sinks 29 for Trinity

St. Mark's continued to roll in the Senior Protestant Church League with a 63-31 victory over Fair Street Reformed.

Clinton Avenue Methodist downed Trinity Lutheran, 52-42, and First Dutch trounced Redeemer Lutheran, 68-41.

Jim Van Dyke rimmed 18 points, Tony Childs 16 and Tandy Taylor 14 for St. Mark's. Lee Kias led Fair Street with 14 and Don Van Buren had 11.

WALT COLCLOUGH sparked First Dutch with 22 points. Bareika and Oudemool swished 13 and Peck had 10. Tom Rowland paced Redeemer with 13 and Phil Hendricks hooped 12.

Don Simmons accounted for best individual performance of the night—29 points—in a losing cause for Trinity Lutheran. He hit with 10 fields and nine free throws.

Bill Niles swished 13, Jones 12 and Vertetis 11 for Clinton Avenue.

Army Beckons Podres Monday

New York, March 15 (AP)—World Series star Johnny Podres has been ordered to report for military service next Monday.

The induction order was released yesterday, taking Podres, who southpawed the Brooklyn Dodgers to the world championship last fall, by surprise.

Podres originally had been ordered to report for induction today by his Ticonderoga, N. Y., draft board. But it was expected he would receive a month's grace when he obtained a transfer to a New York city board.

Podres, 23, had been classified 4-F because of a bad back. He was reclassified 1-A Dec. 27, but may yet be rejected when he takes his induction physical.

KBA Board Opposes TB Hospital Shift

Members of the executive board of the Kingston Bowling Association, during a meeting Tuesday night, went on record as opposing the plan to shift the Ulster County Tuberculosis Hospital to Oneonta.

Mannie Colao, president, said a unanimous vote of the executive board favored the continuation of the TB Hospital in Kingston.

Will Defend Title

Gulfport, Miss., March 15 (AP)—Tiny Tommy Morrow was on hand to defend his title today as the 10th $5,000 annual Gulf Coast Invitational golf tournament opened. Morrow, a collegiate standout at Louisiana State University, made his debut in professional golf a big splash last year by winning the tournament in a record 274 for the 72 holes.

Tris Speaker batted .320 for Cleveland in the 1920 World Series with the Brooklyn Dodgers yet did not drive in one run.

Sparkman Wants Governors to Talk Integration

Washington, March 15 (AP)—Sen. Sparkman (D.-Ala.) suggested today that President Eisenhower call on the governors to set up bipartisan commissions to seek solutions to the integration problem.

Other southern senators expressed opposition in separate interviews to a study commission such as Eisenhower called for again yesterday.

Eisenhower just about ruled out a proposal that he call a White House conference of white and Negro leaders to discuss the tension created in some sections of the south by the Supreme Court ruling outlawing racial segregation in the public schools.

He told his news conference yesterday he wants more than an airing of views—that he wants some real investigative body as quickly as possible.

He said he had in mind a commission created by Congress and given power to issue subpoenas and take evidence.

"I think the President would be better advised to ask the governors of states where there are tensions to set up bipartisan commissions to look into this matter," Sparkman said.

"Integration and kindred problems are different in every state, and people familiar with those problems should look into them."

Nanette Gives Reasons

New York, March 15 (AP)—Stage and TV star Nanette Fabray says a "contractual impasse" will cause her to part professional company with comedian Sid Caesar on his NBC "Caesar's Hour" television show. Before Miss Fabray's statement yesterday, in which she said money was not a major factor in her decision, Caesar had issued a statement thanking Miss Fabray "for her wonderful contribution to my television show for the past two years." "She is a real trouper," Caesar said. "Everyone on the show joins me in wishing for Nan all the success she so richly deserves."

Harriman Scores U. S. Israel Stand

New York, March 15 (AP) — Gov. Averell Harriman, assailing the U. S. government's stand on U. S. arms for Israel, said last night "the inaction of the United States has served to encourage further Communist adventuring."

Harriman, a possibility for the Democratic presidential nomination and former ambassador to Moscow, said:

"TO MEET directly the Communist arms sale to Egypt and to discourage further maneuvers, our government should at once have honored the request of Israel for defensive arms."

Harriman also said he does not agree "with those who say that providing defensive arms to Israel is futile because the people of Israel are out-numbered by the Arabs." This was a reference to an argument by the Eisenhower administration.

The governor discussed his views on the Middle East conflict in a speech at a dinner opening the 1956 campaign of the United Jewish Appeal of Greater New York.

Expect New Violence

Barletta, Italy, March 15 (AP)—Reinforced police units braced for possible new violence today in tense southern Italy, where jobless workers have sparked bloody food riots. Two men were killed and 27 wounded in a clash yesterday in this Adriatic port city of 50,000 persons. Police reinforcements also were ordered to the nearby towns of Andria and Corato. New outbreaks were feared there.

EDIBLE MORELS

MORELS ARE EASILY IDENTIFIED, SAFE AND ONE OF THE MOST DELICIOUS MUSHROOMS. THEY FIRST APPEAR (THIMBLE-SIZE) WHEN APPLE TREES START BLOOMING, AND LAST ABOUT 4 WEEKS. YOUNG ONES' CAPS ARE ASHEN-GRAY, THEN THEY CHANGE TO SPONGE-COLOR. RIDGES BETWEEN PITS MAY DARKEN AS THEY AGE. STEMS AND CAPS ARE HOLLOW INSIDE. LOOK FOR MORELS IN DEEP WOODS FIRST, THEN IN MEADOWS. TRY OLD BEAVER DAMS IN WESTERN MOUNTAINS.

SOAK SLICED PLANTS A FEW HOURS IN SALT WATER, THEN FRY.

On Mercy Flight

Dover, Del., March 15 (AP)—A huge C-124 Globemaster loaded down with 28 iron lungs and other respiratory equipment left here today on a mercy flight to polio-stricken Buenos Aires. With a crew of 11 men, the 4-engine Military Air Transport plane will be able to make the trip to Argentina without stopping for crew rest periods. Aboard are two chief pilots, two co-pilots, and two navigators. A spokesman at Dover Air Force Base said the equipment was being sent under auspices of the State Department and was provided by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

Workhorse Reward

Lawrenceburg, Ky. (AP) — Everybody knew that Johnny Lyon had worked like a horse on a factory repair job. But do you think his fellow workers patted him on the back for being such a workhorse? Well—yes and no. They sent a bale of hay — gift card and all — to Johnny.

LUCKY FELLOW—Curvaceous Marilyn Monroe hangs onto the arm of Don Murray, who has been named to play opposite her in "Bus Stop." Murray will play the part of "Bo," a cowboy who kidnaps her in the film. He has previously worked on Broadway in "Insect Comedy," "Rose Tattoo," and "Skin of Our Teeth."

High School Labs Blamed for Lack Of Pupil Interest

Washington, March 15 (AP)—A physicist-educator blamed "our cook-book high school laboratories" today for a lack of student interest in science.

"Any good student is irked to death by the memorization and 'pluggin into formulas' and routineness with which science is taught these days," said R. W. Lefler, professor of physics and of education at Pudue University, Lafayette, Ind.

Lefler and several other educators attending the convention of the National Science Teachers Assn. joined in an interview to discuss the nation's future supply of scientists.

ONE WAY to get more science students, Lefler added, would be to set up courses in a way to encourage independent investigation by students. He conceded, however, that "too few teachers are themselves trained in investigative methods."

Arthur O. Baker, directing supervisor of science in the Cleveland public schools, speaking of conditions in Ohio, said a step-up in science requirements is needed. In Cleveland, he said, where there is a complete science program from kindergarten through 12th grade, there has been a constant increase in science enrollment the past few years.

Greta Oppe, head of the science department of Ball High School, Galveston, Tex., where two years of science are required, estimated that out of Ball's 1,000 students 500 take biology this year and nearly 200 take chemistry—although fewer than 100 take physics.

"EMPHASIS on mathematics scares a good many off from psysics who might otherwise enroll because of their interest in physical principles," Miss Oppe said.

Thelma Heatwole, science teacher at Wilson Memorial High School, Fisherville, Va., said about 500 out of 1,300 take biology, 90 chemistry and 15 physics. A year's science is required.

U. S. Office of Education Statistics indicate only about half of all high school students take science now compared to some 84 per cent in 1900. Educators generally agree this is because science is now largely elective

Those participating in today's interview, however, noted that in 1900 only about 8 per cent of the high school age group actually attended high school, whereas today enrollment is over 80 per cent.

"So actually," Miss Heatwole said, "a much larger percentage of high school age people are taking science now."

Sawkill

Sawkill, March 15—A group from the Sawkill Fire Company visited the Olive Fire Company in West Shokan recently where the fire truck and pump were demonstrated.

The dance, sponsored by the Sawkill firemen, was held recently at the firehouse. More than 80 persons enjoyed round and square dancing. February committee members were Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Burton and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Hulsair. The regular dance, scheduled the last Saturday of the month, has been postponed to the first Saturday in April at 9 p. m. Committee members this month are Mr. and Mrs. Leo Stauble and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Sleight. Music by Pappy Dietz.

The Sawkill Mothers' Club meeting will be held Tuesday, March 27 at 7:30 p. m. at the schoolhouse.

The Ladies Auxiliary held their regular meeting at the firehouse last Wednesday. Mrs. Wayne Burton, RN, led a discussion on the topic of polio. Plans were discussed for the auxiliary booth at the annual firemen's social on July 4. Tentative plans for a home-made articles booth were suggested. Mrs. Wayne Burton was elected vice president to fill the term left vacant by the resignation of Mrs. Janet Brooks. Mrs. Earl Sleight and Mrs. Joseph Diedzie headed the refreshment committee.

The regular meeting of the Sawkill Fire Company was held at the firehouse Monday evening. Regular business was discussed.

Thicken a can of stewed tomatoes and serve over rice or toast with strips of crisply cooked bacon for a delicious luncheon dish. Canned whole-kernel corn or green peas may be added to the tomatoes.

Smedberg Is New Annapolis Head

Annapolis, Md., March 15 (AP) A fighting ship man was to relieve a naval aviator today as superintendent of the Naval Academy.

Rear Adm. William R. Smedberg III, at 53 one of the navy's youngest flag officers, becomes the 37th superintendent of the service school since it was opened in 1845. He succeeds Rear Adm. Walter F. Boone.

Smedberg, who commanded the destroyer Lansdowne and cruiser Hudson during World War 2 and the battleship Iowa during the Korean war, has been director of politico-military affairs in the office of the chief of naval operations since April, 1953.

Adm. Boone, superintendent since Aug. 12, 1954, will be promoted to full admiral and named commander-in-chief of naval forces in the eastern Atlantic and Mediterranean with headquarters in London.

The new superintendent, son of an army general, was born at Fort Grant, Ariz., Sept. 28, 1902. He entered the Naval Academy in 1922, graduating with the class of 1926.

In addition to his ship-board commands during World War 2, he served as chief of staff to the commander of Task Force 39 and Cruiser Division 12.

A son, Edwin B. Smedberg, is a midshipman at the Academy. Another, William R. Smedberg IV, is a lieutenant (junior grade) attached to the destroyer Beatty.

Rounding out a navy family is a daughter, Claudia, wife of the commander of a navy jet fighter squadron.

Rejects Soviet Protest

Tehran, Iran, March 15 (AP)—Iran today rejected a Soviet protest on the arrest and expulsion of a Soviet assistant military attache, Maj. Anatoli I. Kouznetsov. The Iranians reiterated that the attache, arrested Feb. 29, was engaged in espionage. He left Iran last Thursday.

Tantrums Don't Win Love; They Just Arouse Terror

By MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

Some 50 years ago, Mrs. Emily K., then a child of seven, had a spectacular tantrum.

Ignoring her protests, her mother had tied her best hair ribbon around her younger sister's curls. Emily gave a piercing shriek. Clutching her throat as though she were strangling, she fell to the floor, twitched once or twice with dramatic convulsiveness—and pretended to lose consciousness.

She got the ribbon back. Her mother, hastily returning it, fell on her knees; and begging to be released from the terror Emily was inflicting on her, cried, "Shall I get Dr. White? Where does it hurt? Just open your eyes . . ."

Was Emily's tantrum successful? Did it get her what she wanted?

No. She was not trying to recover her hair ribbon. What she wanted as a displaced older sister was to recover maternal love that she could trust. The ribbon was wanted, not for itself, but as evidence of reaffirmed love.

But her tantrum aroused terror, not love. All it did was fill her mother with guilty fear she would be blamed if anything were seriously wrong. So the tantrum was a dreadful failure.

Unforutunately, Emily has never realized this.

Now, in her 60's, she still seeks love from her important people by terrorizing them.

If her married son cuts short the Sunday visit she regards as her possession, she begins to complain of what she calls her "weakness."

Pretending loss of breath as she once pretended loss of consciousness, she'll whisper, "I'm alright; don't mind me"—and send her son home to his children, depressed by his wicked desire to get away from her.

Her unmarried daughter, a teacher, has again postponed the summer trip to Europe she's been planning for five years. Emily didn't want her to have it. Shrieking for her daughter's presence as she once shrieked for her hair ribbon, she threatened to die if her daughter left her—and collapsing on the sofa, assumed the appearance of one about to faint.

Her daughter will veto her trip. Emily will recover ownership of her child as she did of her ribbon. But at the cost of the love she's been seeking all her life; at the price of terror and secret recoil.

Church Building Used by Bank Has Cellar Fire

A fire, which started in a carton of cleaning rags and paper materials in the basement of 52 Main street, now occupied temporarily by the Ulster County Savings Institution, was checked before causing serious damage yesterday afternoon.

The blaze, which was discovered by employes of the bank, charred the under side of a shelf, and caused considerable smoke in the building. It was checked with a soda and acid extinguisher.

Men and equipment from Wiltwyck and Central stations, and Wicks Engine Company answered a call at 3:04 p. m.

The building, owned by the Old Dutch Church, is being occupied by the bank pending completion of renovations at its home building at 280 Wall street.

Bids may be left at the Town Clerk's Office, attention Board of Fire Commissioners. Specifications may be obtained from Fire Chief George Haythorne or the Board Chairman, Commissioner M. DeWitt. By order of the Board of Fire Commissioners, March 12, 1956.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

Sealed proposals in duplicate will be received by the Central School District No. 2, Board of Education, at the office of the Board, Maple Avenue, Ellenville, New York, until Three O'Clock P. M., E.S.T., on Tuesday, April 3, 1956, at which time and place the proposals will be publicly opened and read.

Separate proposals will be received for the following work:

Contract No. 7—Gymnasium and Playroom Equipment.

Contract No. 8—Auditorium Stage Equipment.

Contract No. 9—Auditorium and Music-Assembly Room Seating.

Contract No. 10—Arts and Crafts Room and Shop Equipment.

Contract No. 11—Science Labs and Food Laboratory Equipment.

Forms of Proposal, Drawings, Specifications and other contract documents may be obtained by each bidder at the office of the Architects, Howard C. Snyder, Reginald E. Marsh, Starrett & Van Vleck, Associate Architects, 101 Park Avenue, New York, upon deposit of the sum of Twenty-Five Dollars ($25), which deposit will be returned to the bidder upon return of the documents in good condition within Thirty (30) days after the opening of the bids, provided that a formal proposal has been submitted by bidder. Only one set of drawings and specifications will be issued to each bidder. Additional sets or portions thereof may be obtained by any bidder upon payment of the actual cost of reproduction.

Each bid must be accompanied by a certified check for ten (10) per cent of the amount of the bid, made payable to the Board of Education, or a bid bond in the amount of ten (10) per cent of the amount of the bid, as a guarantee that in case the contract is awarded to the bidder, he will within two weeks thereafter execute the contract and furnish satisfactory bond. Upon failure to do so he shall forfeit the security as liquidated damages.

The checks or bid bonds of all except the three lowest bidders will be returned within three days after the opening of the bids, and the remaining checks or bid bonds will be returned when the contract is executed, or in any event within sixty days after the opening of the bids. No bid may be withdrawn within sixty days after the opening thereof.

The successful bidder will be required to furnish a performance bond in approved form and with securities satisfactory to the Board, which bond shall be in the amount of the contract and shall be conditioned upon the faithful performance of the contract upon the payment of all just claims for materials and labor furnished under the contract.

The time for the completion of the work under all contracts will be determined by the bidder and will be stated in the contract, and each contractor will be required to perform his work at such times and in such manner as not to delay the work under other contracts.

The Board of Education reserves the right to reject any or all bids, or to accept any proposal by any bidder which in the opinion of the Board of Education will be in the best interest of the Board. The time for completion of the contract as set forth in the contractor's bid will be taken into consideration in determining the successful bidder.

State President Speaks Saturday To Cancer Group

Plans for the 10th anniversary campaign for the Cancer Crusade for 1956 to begin Easter Monday, April 2, will be discussed at a special luncheon meeting of county, city and town chairmen to be held at Governor Clinton Hotel, Saturday at 12:30 p. m.

The president of the New York State Division, American Cancer Society, Edmund R. Vadeboncoeur, and the president of the Ulster county unit, Dr. William S. Bush, will be present. County Campaign Chairman, Charles M. Rinschler, will inform town and city chairmen of requirements of the campaign, the period of time it will be conducted and the methods to be employed not alone by town and city chairmen and their assistants but also the proposal of the county chairman to use television, radio and such other means available as will make this 10th anniversary campaign a success. The pupils of the schools throughout the county, including public, private and parochial have volunteered to take part in this campaign, as have the various service clubs, fraternal clubs, church organizations, and other civic groups. This will be an all-out campaign to meet the $22,000 quota for Ulster county.

IN THE NEAR future a list will be published of the quotas for each township in Ulster county and the city of Kingston. In general, it will be an increase of approximately 10 per cent over the quotas for last year. During the campaign, as well as any time during the year, educational literature concerning cancer is available and may be obtained by dropping a post card or a letter to the office of the Ulster county unit at 400 Broadway, or by telephoning the same address.

Members of the medical profession, the American Cancer Society and its various subsidiaries recommend a yearly health examination at which time it may be possible to detect the beginnings of cancer, which will go far toward saving a life. Meanwhile there are seven danger signals mentioned in the literature available as noted above. These indications should be at one's finger tips:

1. Any sore that does not heal.
2. A lump or thickening in the breast or elsewhere.
3. Unusual bleeding or discharge.
4. Any change in a wart or mole.
5. Persistent indigestion or difficulty in swallowing.
6. Persistent hoarseness or cough.
7. Any change in normal bowel habits.

It is hoped that everyone at all interested in cancer keep in mind these danger signals for knowing them may well prevent a death from cancer.

Cottekill School

The dental program in Cottekill School is progressing very well. Sponsored by Cottekill School Aid Society, it enables all children in the school to receive free dental work.

Any one interested in driver education should contact Mr. Schoonmaker before the middle of March. There is room for only a limited number in this class and it is important to register as soon as possible.

The Friday Club in Mr. Schoonmaker' room now includes a 'sunshine club." This group sends get well cards to boys and girls in the school who are ill.

Cottekill basketball team ended the season with a record of four wins and six losses. Softball practice will be starting soon and we hope to have a winning team this coming season.

Those having an average of 100 per cent in spelling for this quarter are Arlene Freer and Edward Williams.

Everyone in the 6th, 7th, and 8th grades gave interesting reports on the more common elements in our universe.

Perfect attendance to date this year has been achieved by Peter Beck, Fred Huebner, Robert Murphy, Edward Williams, and Ann Carbone.

The first graders have been enjoying "Fun at the Circus." This included a movie about the circus, reading and looking at circus books, and constructing some cardboard circus models.

Many children in the primary grades are recovering from a siege of the mumps.

Special Meeting To Decide Fate Of Chamber Event

Saugerties, March 15 (AP)—The fate of the Saugerties merchants Appreciation Day "treasure chest" program will be decided at a special meeting of all participating merchants with the members of the sponsoring group, the Saugerties Area Chamber of Commerce.

The meeting is scheduled Wednesday, March 21, at 8:30 p. m. in the Exempt's rooms of the Municipal building. This is the regular monthly meeting night of the chamber.

All participating merchants and others interested in the program are requested to be represented at this important meeting. A vote may be taken to decide the continuance of the program which has been in successful operation for more than six months.

Although the program has drawn crowds well over 1,000 persons to the streets of the Saugerties business district, and committee records have proven that the program has attracted out of town customers, criticisms have been voiced by those participating.

Definite action will be taken at this meeting to iron out any difficulties. Proposals to discontinue the program or postpone the weekly events for a few months will be heard and given due consideration by the Appreciation Day committee.

If the program is to be continued plans will be discussed to permit additional merchants of the area to participate without causing a hardship to those merchants who have supported the program for over 26 weeks.

Those merchants who have dropped out of the program will have the opportunity to be reinstated under any new arrangements voted upon at this meeting.

Each of the participating merchants and supporting firms have approximately a $40 share in the present "treasure chest." The fate of the "treasure chest" will be decided by vote of those in attendance.

St. Paul's Easter Program Rehearsal Set

Saugerties, March 15 — Rehearsals for the annual Easter program of the Sunday school of St. Paul's Lutheran Church of West Camp will begin Saturday, March 17 at 1 p. m. in the West Camp parish hall. All departments of the Sunday school will participate. The program will be under the direction of the Sunday school teachers and Mrs. Roy J. Potts of Cementon, organist.

M-WC Firemen to Aid Auxiliary With Party

Saugerties, March 15 — Full cooperation with the Auxiliary of Malden-West Camp Fire Company in conducting a card party social was indicated at the regular monthly meeting of the firemen held in West Camp firehouse Tuesday night.

The social event will be held in West Camp firehouse Saturday, March 24 at 8 p. m.

The firement circulated a list at the meeting on which those attending indicated the various prizes the members anticipate donating to the success of the affair. The members also made arrangements to dispense soft drinks at the party.

It was reported at the meeting that the Auxiliary had undertaken the expense of a liability insurance policy for both the Malden and West Camp fire stations.

A five year fire insurance policy covering both buildings was also reported to have been donated by Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Schirmer, local insurance agents and residents of the fire district.

Committee reports brought out that the telephone company line to permit the sirens on both fire houses to be sounded by the local telephone company would be installed during the second week in April. Signs for in front of each building were reported completed by John McDonough of Saugerties and would be erected this week.

President Luther Emerick who presided announced that Fire Police classes to which company representatives will attend will begin on April 3 at Port Ewen firehouse.

SHS Yearbook Benefit Offers Variety Show

Saugerties March 15—Four of the participants in the "Sawyer Spectacular" are William Rose, Mrs. George Werner, Miss Marilyn Winnie and Miss Eleanor Witherill. The "Spectacular" will be presented Friday, March 23 at 8 p. m. in Saugerties High School auditorium and will consist of musical selections and dramatic readings.

The program is being presented for the benefit of The Sawyer, Saugerties High School yearbook. The professional background of the above-named participants is presented below.

William Ross, trumpet player, has had several years' experience playing the trumpet. He played first trumpet in his high school band, was a member of a navy orchestra, has played with local musical groups, has played solos on several occasions locally, and teaches trumpet.

Mrs. George Werner will present some mono-dramas. She has trained at Bradley University, with Hope Summers at Chicago, and at the Beaux Arts in New York city. She has engaged in radio work for one year, and has made over 2,000 personal appearances in the United States.

Miss Marilyn Winnie, soprano, sang leading roles in the Saugerties High School operettas, studied privately in Schenectady, has been a soloist with the IBM Chorus, and is a soloist with Trinity Episcopal Church choir.

Miss Eleanor Witherill, mezzo soprano, has had voice training for some time and holds a BS in music from Boston Conservatory of Music. She is a member of Saugerties Reformed Church choir and is employed as music teacher in the Saugerties Central School.

27 Million . . .

the special commission studying government security programs; $56,000 to start work on a war memorial on Corregidor island; three millions for construction of the Jefferson National Memorial in St. Louis, and $300,000 for expenses of special House committees.

THE COMMITTEE turned down these requests:

Three millions to acquire the Rand-McNally building in Chicago, pending a new study by the General Service Administration to determine whether the purchase would be "in the best interests of the government."

Two millions to accelerate the access road program in the Oregon and California land grant area. The committee said the money isn't necessary "at this time."

An item of $500,000 to purchase land in connection with the proposed Jones Point bridge across the Potomac river between nearby Virginia and Maryland. The committee previously had turned down a request for construction funds asked for next year's budget.

Docker Now

when he first gave a sworn statement to the Waterfront Commission on Oct. 7, 1955. At that time, he said, he was "angry" at Acosta.

Appearing as a defense witness, Uribe testified that he repeated his charges under oath because of an investigator, whom he did not name, had promised him steady employment on the waterfront if he testified against the hiring boss.

Uribe testified in an open hearing last Friday that he had given Acosta $3 to $5 "on various occasions" between February and October, 1955.

Yesterday, cross-examined by Salvatore J. Camp, assistant commission counsel, he admitted "I lied." He insisted that he had never paid the hiring boss any money.

Would Retain Drum

Washington, March 15 (AP)—Rep. Kilburn (R-N. Y.) today again called on the army to maintain Camp Drum, N. Y., on a full time basis. He said it is the only eastern installation where large scale winter maneuvers may be held. More than that, he told Secretary of the Army Brucker in a letter, the Defense Department's own figures make out "an excellent case for permanent status for Camp Drum." The camp, located near Watertown, N. Y., is now used for summer training of national guard troops and reservists.

Gets School Post

Albany, N. Y., March 15 (AP)—Gov. Harriman today appointed Dr. Lloyd T. McNulty of Potsdam to the council of the Potsdam State Teachers College. Dr. McNulty, whose term will succeed Edward Wright, whose term has expired.

Lensky Becomes Part Owner of Restaurant Here

Max Lensky, formerly associated with the Longchamp Restaurants in New York city has become associated with Charles H. Hoppe, proprietor of Hoppey's Restaurant at 286 Wall street. Mr. Lensky, who for the past few years has conducted a delicatessen business at Jackson Heights, Long Island, joins Hoppey's as a partner. The partnership became effective on Wednesday of this week.

Hoppey's Restaurant has been conducted by Mr. and Mrs. Hoppe since 1948 and during that period the restaurant has been remodeled and enlarged. Due to the increased business, Hoppe said Wednesday, he had sought a partner who might relieve him of the increasing responsibility. Lensky, for over four years with Longchamps, learned the hotel and restaurant business in Europe where he was associated with several prominent hostelries. Mrs. Lensky is also an experienced restaurant proprietor.

In formation of the partnership the business has been incorporated under the name of Hoppey's, Inc., and N. LeVan Haver was the attorney for the corporation.

Mr. and Mrs. Lensky have taken up residence in Kingston, presently residing at Hill Crest Gardens.

Democrats' . . .

'I wish to inform you that the board of supervisors is authorized to discontinue the Ulster County Tuberculosis Hospital, if it desires to do so, by resolution adopted by a majority of the members of the board pursuant to Section 394 of the County Law.' With empty beds in the state hospitals, what else could he say?

"MUCH IS MADE of the savings to the taxpayers if our TB hospital is closed. The cost of operating the hospital and clinic was about $200,000 in 1955. Of this $100,000 was raised by taxes and the balance received in fees and state aid. If the patients had been at Homer Foulks the taxpayers would have had to pay only $90,000. This saving would give each resident of the county a bottle of 'coke.' This saving is insignificant when we consider that the county budget is over five millions. It should also be remembered that the state can at any time raise the charges at Homer Foulks Hospital. Those unfortunate enough to have friends or relatives with TB, however, would have added transportation costs and the county would probably run up considerable costs for ambulance service. Economically the county would lose an institution which pays out $134,000 yearly in salaries and buys $40,000 of groceries and supplies locally.

"One of the important activities of the local TB hospital has been the operation of its clinic. While theoretically it operated three days a week, actually the facilities are available whenever needed. While Dr. Plunkett states that clinical services would be available on the average of twice a week, no mention is made of where or how these services would be operated.

IN TIME of emergency or catastrophe it might be highly desirable to have additional hospital facilities available in this area. A deactivated hospital would have no more value than a barn.

"In conclusion, I might add that I do not believe that county officials, sitting in offices, originally constructed to care for the ailing, could be happy, knowing that they had displaced some of their less fortunate fellow citizens.

THE LIONS CLUB communication was in the form of a resolution adopted by the club at its March 12 directors' meeting. It was signed by President Harry Gold.

The resolution said "it appears that occupancy of said hospital for the year 1955 exceeded 92 per cent and pointed out that the quality of treatment and care "equals or surpasses any such hospital in the State of New York."

IT SAID the difference in cost to the taxpayers of the town of Ulster between the cost of maintaining the TB hospital and that which would be expended for maintenance of Ulster county patients at a state institution "is negligible."

The Lions Club said the convenience of visitation of patients by relatives is an important factor to be considered.

A copy of the resolution was to be forwarded to the board of supervisors, it was added.

Heads Dentists

Elmira, N. Y., March 15 (AP)—Dr. Carlton L. Faust of Binghamton today was elected president of the Sixth District Dental Society of New York. He succeeds Dr. T. J. O'Connell of Ithaca. Other officers elected at the conclusion of the society's 88th annual meeting here today were: President elect, Dr. Daniel O'Neill of Elmira; vice president, Dr. Emanuel Abramson of Sidney; secretary-treasurer, Dr. J. Glezen Watts of Endicott.

Car Theft, Burglary Probed by Police

A car theft from a downtown service station operator and a burglary at the Greyhound bus terminal, Railroad avenue, were reported to local police yesterday.

Fred Gerlock, of 58 Ferry street, reported at 5:09 p. m., that a 1951 Kaiser sedan, without a license plate or keys, had been taken from near his gas station, and police were notified earlier that the bus terminal had been entered through the breaking of a rear window and $25 was taken from a cash drawer.

Tillson Man Is Fair Following Route 32 Crash

George Hochstein, 58, of River road, Tillson, was reported in "fair" condition at Kingston Hospital today following a two-car collision about noon Wednesday on Route 32 two miles south of Kingston.

Kingston state police said Mr. Hochstein was treated at the hospital early yesterday afternoon and released but that he returned later and was re-admitted for further examination. It was believed that he suffered chest injuries.

Hilda Trandle, 55, of Maple Hill, Rosendale, was also admitted to the hospital for head X-rays but was later released.

TROOPER Raymond Kowalsky said the Trandle car was proceeding north on Route 32 when Mrs. Trandle saw a car, operated by Mr. Hochstein skidding toward her. She stopped but the two cars were in head-on collision in the northbound lane, Trooper Kowalsky reported.

Trooper Kowalsky took both of the drivers to the hospital in his patrol car.
